Lowell Dealers Say Coal Market "Uncertain"

Mayor Names High School Boy to Represent City at Camp Devens

MAYOR JOHN J. DONOVAN AND RICHARD G. WELCH

Richard G. Welch, of 70 Livingston avenue, has been appointed by Mayor John J. Donovan to officially represent Lowell at the Citizens' Military Training Camp at Camp Devens, which will be held next month. Notice of the appointment was mailed today by His Honor to Gen. Malvern Hill Barsum, commandant at Devens. The appointee is 17 years of age and the son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Welch of Livingston avenue. He is a student at the high school, where he expects to graduate with next year's class. The young man was chosen from a score or more young men who personally applied for the appointment at the mayor's office.

Lowell's Traffic Problems Grow More Vexing From Day to Day

EDWARD J. CONNORS, Traffic Supervisor

With thousands of motor cars passing through the main thoroughfares of the city daily, Lowell's traffic problems have assumed metropolitan proportions, according to Supervisor Edward J. Connors. Although every effort is being made to alleviate the increased congestion with additional "one parking" signs in the central business districts of the city, the task is a herculean one and can only reach successful accomplishment with the co-operation of the owners and operators of motor vehicles.

About two months ago, Supervisor Connors and Officer Edward Panagan submitted a detailed report of local traffic conditions to Sgt. Atkinson at the latter's request, outlining at some length the localized parking areas in the downtown sections of the city. For a time the suggestions were carried out with marked success, but were soon discarded and today traffic officers are kept on the jump warning delinquents of traffic law violations.

In view of the apparent great need of personal assistance, the list of parking spaces and the accommodations, printed and the city in The Sun, warrants repetition: Hookings street, French street, Kirk street, the farther end of John street, the lower end of Dutton street, Brown street, all centrally located and capable of accommodating between 700 and 1000 cars. If such cities as Lynn, Fall River, Worcester or New Bedford had such facilities, says Supervisor Connors.

ADMIRAL SIGSBEE DIES SUDDENLY

Was Commander of the Ill-Fated Battleship Maine, Sunk in 1898

Was Out Riding Yesterday—Death Was Due to Heart Failure

NEW YORK, July 19.—Rear Admiral Charles D. Sigsbee, U.S.N., retired, captain of the ill-fated battleship Maine, died suddenly at his home here this morning.

Admiral Sigsbee had been in poor health for the last two years, though only yesterday he was out riding. His death was due to heart failure. The arrangements for the funeral have not been made, but he will be buried at Arlington cemetery, Washington, probably next Monday.

ELIMINATION OF DANGER SPOT

New Tracks at Merrimack and Dutton Streets to Be Installed Soon

Corner Has Long Been Source of Great Annoyance, Delay and Danger

The street railway company, in accordance with the request of the public service board, has completed plans for the installation of a double rail curve from Merrimack to Dutton streets to do away with the present single-rail curve and dangerous cross-over. Manager Maurice E. McCormick said today that orders have been placed.

DISAPPEARS LEAVING DEATH THREAT BEHIND

Archie W. Joyce, a cook employed at the Walder restaurant on Merrimack street, has been missing since yesterday morning. He left a note in his room at 243 Appleton street to the effect that he was going to end his life, and some foundation is given this because Joyce took with him a 45-cal. Ithaca revolver.

Joyce also left two letters in his room, and asked the landlord to mail them if he did not return last night. One of the letters was addressed to a girl, but the police are withholding her name.

The missing man, who was last seen on Central street about 10 o'clock yesterday morning, is 30 years of age, five feet, four inches in height, light complexioned and has light hair. He wore a gray coat, dark trousers and a blue shirt.

City Teaching Scores of Boys and Girls Art of Swimming at So. Common Pool

SWIMMING INSTRUCTOR LEO WHOLEY AND GROUP OF YOUNGSTERS IN THE POOL

For the first time in the history of our park system, young children are being taught to swim by a competent instructor where there is absolutely no danger. It has already proved to be one of the most popular features of the summer playground program.

Supt. Kernan is very much satisfied with the success of this departure and states that in a little over a week, about 100 boys who could not swim a stroke now are able to swim fairly well and 19 boys yesterday gave an exhibition in the pond on the South common, where the instruction is given. That proved them to be competent swimmers. Mr. Kernan believes in making every boy his own life-saver by teaching him to be an expert swimmer.

This paper for years has advocated instruction in swimming in connection

PARADE ON LABOR DAY NOT THOUGHT LIKELY

There probably will be no parade in Lowell on Labor day.

This is not official, but it is believed that the members of the Trades and Labor Council, who will meet this evening to take action on the matter will vote against holding a street celebration. The reason given is that the cost of uniforms for the different crafts is exorbitant.

The matter of observing Labor day with a street parade has been under discussion by the local union for several weeks and a short time ago the different unions were asked to take a vote as to whether or not they favored a parade and it was learned this morning that a majority voted against it. The delegates will report at the Trades & Labor council meeting tonight, and a final vote on the matter will be taken by the council.

There probably will be a mass meeting on the South common, however, in the evening and it is expected that prominent speakers from out of town will be secured for the occasion.

COAL DEALERS SAY UNCERTAINTY MARKS ANTHRACITE FUEL MARKET AT PRESENT

"We could not bid on the entire amount because of the uncertainty of obtaining coal to supply our domestic trade," was the excuse given to Purchasing Agent Donnelly today by some of the local coal dealers for having refused to submit bids for approximately 1000 tons of egg, broken and stove coal for public buildings, as called for yesterday.

A call for bids for egg, broken and stove coal for the school and other public buildings was issued some time ago and 11 o'clock yesterday morning was the time set by the purchasing agent for the opening of the bids. When the time came for the opening of the bids

STRIKE ENDS AT 3 O'CLOCK

Lawrence Operators First to Vote Acceptance of Plan to Bring Settlement

Company to Re-employ as Many Strikers as Possible at Unchanged Wages

Former Employees Will Be Required to Make Individual Application

LAWRENCE, July 19.—The Lawrence telephone operators who have been on strike since June 26, voted today to end the strike at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

A committee was appointed to confer with Miss Nellie J. Mahoney, chief operator, relative to re-employment of the strikers.

It was stated that the vote to end the strike was in accordance with a vote taken by representatives of union members from several cities at a meeting which was held in Boston last night.

Manager Fred G. Cheney of the local exchange said that approximately 35 of the 126 positions on the local switchboard have been filled and that in accordance with the promise of the company the

"SPEED UP," JUDGE TELLS SLOW DRIVERS

DETROIT, July 19.—Sitting in a court made famous by Charles L. Bartlett, who slapped big fines on speeders, sent them to jail and even to the psychopathic ward for observation, as to their sanity, Judge Edward J. Jeffreys yesterday took a rap at slow drivers and told them to speed up.

"Driving slowly causes more accidents than driving fast," Judge Jeffreys said. "It gums up traffic. There are more accidents under 25 miles an hour than there are above."

SKIPPER SHANGHAIED 25 MILES AT SEA

BOSTON, July 19.—Capt. Frederick Hyman, the negro skipper of the British fishing schooner, Kadusak, seized at sea Tuesday by the United States coast guard cutter, Ossipee, pleaded not guilty in the federal court here yesterday, to the charge of participation in an alleged gun-running conspiracy entered at San Harbor, Me., last September. He was held in bail of $3000 for a hearing on Aug. 15.

William H. Lewis, an attorney, retained by the negro skipper when he was brought ashore, declared that his client had been "shanghaied" far at sea in violation of the laws of civilized nations. There was speculation here as to the possible attitude of the British government toward the arrest of Hyman and his vessel as the latter (it is stated, was 25 miles off Cape Ann when taken in tow by the Ossipee. The arrest was made on the recommendation of District Attorney Frederick R. Dyer, of Portland, to the Ossipee commander's superior officer, after a wireless message from the Ossipee that the Kadusak had been sighted eight miles off shore. Mr. Dyer, it is expected, will assist in the prosecution of Hyman.

Capt. Hyman readily admitted yesterday that he had on the Kadusak about 1500 cases of whiskey and gun, consigned from Trinidad to St. Pierre, Minn., and declared he had nothing to conceal. He is said to be a college graduate and to have been born in Scotland.

"Of course, I couldn't do anything when the Ossipee's commander told me I was under arrest," he remarked. "But if we had had guns like the Ossipee's, I would not have come without a fight."

A well known Boston lawyer likened the Kadusak seizure to the historic Mason and Slidell affair which nearly provoked a war with England during the Civil war and declared that the government officials were in the wrong in arresting the Kadusak and its skipper on the high seas.

MAKE RECORD SEIZURE IN TEWKSBURY

Federal officers last night made a seizure of the biggest moonshine plant ever detected in the vicinity of Lowell. The raid was made at the farm of Frank E. Smith, in Walcott street in South Tewksbury and Smith and three negroes of Boston were arrested and held in 1900 each for their appearance today before United States Commissioner Hayes B. Boston.

Three stills, each with a capacity of 200 gallons were found, together with 200 gallons of moonshine, three hundred pounds of sugar, 750 pounds of sugar, about 1000 gallons of mash, several kerosene stoves and 100 gallons of kerosene.

The distilling plant occupied the entire cellar and part of the first floor. A new gasoline pump connected to a large tank supplied the stills with water and power. The stills were connected by a condensing coil.

The raid was made by Federal Officers Walter Sullivan and John Hall, with the assistance of two other officers from Boston.

MANY ATTEND FUNERAL OF JAMES W. M'KENNA

A solemn high mass of requiem, attended by an overflow congregation of relatives and friends, two open branches of flowers, an unusually long procession of carriages, and the suspension of business in Centralville for two hours, marked the funeral ceremonies this morning of James William McKenna, for twenty years a prominent figure in the undertaking business in this city.

The funeral took place at 9 o'clock from the McKenna home, 157 Bridge street, the cortege proceeding to St. Michael's church, where a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated at 10 o'clock by Rev. James F. Lynch, assisted by Rev. Thomas J. Heughey, a deacon, and Rev. James J. O'Donnell, O.M.I., of the Sacred Heart church as sub-deacon. Rev. Joseph A. Curran of St. Patrick's church was master of ceremonies, while seated in the sanctuary during the mass were the following: Rev. John J. Shaw, pastor of St. Michael's; Rev. Arthur P. Connors, O.M.I., of Buffalo, N. Y.; Rev. Daniel F. Gorman of St. Catherine's church, Charlestown; Rev. Charles J. Sullivan, D.D., of St. Andrew's, North Billerica; Rev. John C. Giblin, pastor of St. Mary's, Col. lineville; and Rev. Philip J. Lee of Turner's Falls, Mass.

The choir, under the direction of Mr. James A. Murphy, rendered Terry's requiem mass, Faure's "Pie Jesu" being sung by Mrs. J. A. Murphy; "O Meritum Passionis," by Mr. James S. King; the solo in the Gloria, by Mr. Murphy; the "De Profundis," by Mr. Cunningham, and the solo in the mass by Miss Margaret Griffin and Miss Margaret Cunningham. Mrs. Ella Kelly Toyo was the organist.

Among the many delegations represented was a group of Sisters of Notre Dame of St. Patrick's parish, and the following society delegates: Bishop Delany Assembly, Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus, Charles J. Lander, D.D.B.K., John H. McNabb, P.G.K., William H. Gallagher, P.E.S., and John T. Burns, while Lowell council was represented by Grand Knight John E. Hart, John J. Lane, Ambrose Croamer, Martin F. Conley, Leo Pope and William Hunt. Other delegations were: Lowell lodge of Elks; Hon. John T. Sparks, Thomas A. Golden, Joseph Gilley, Edward P. Morris and John Downing, Loyd Order of Moose; Elmer G. Willey, director; Thomas M. Keegan, secretary; Ernest P. Parsons, P.H.; Patrick H. Monahan, trustee; William T. Haring and William A. Moak, Massachusetts; Geo. W. Healey, Wm. H. Saunders, Amos Archambault, Thos. J. O'Donnell, John L. McDonough, Jos. Albert, Branch O'Neil Crowley, Irish National Foresters; Patrick Linehan, P.C.R.; Patrick P. Sexton, P.C.R.; Michael Nugent and Patrick Nevin, General Organizer Joseph L. Handley of Boston, representing the subsidiary executive council of Boston, was also with this delegation. Royal Arcanum: Dr. Hugh Walker, P.R.; Joseph H. Gormley, P.R.; Charles H. O'Donnell, P.R.; Neil A. Clark, P.R.; John W. Sharkey and Regent James Tuttle.

The honorary pall bearers were James A. Murphy, George M. Haregan, Edward H. Foye, Judge Thos. J. Harlick, Hugh Maguire and James H. Lawler, while the active bearers were E. Harry Clifford, William F. Cawley, Edward P. Galloway, Dr. Richard J. McCluskey, William H. Noonan and Thomas Nevin. The ushers at the house and church were Charles D. Foley, Francis Duffy and Edward P. Slattery, Jr.

As the body was taken from the church the various delegations formed a guard outside and made passage way for the casket. Burial was in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery, where the committal prayer was read by Rev. Fr. Lynch, Rev. Daniel F. Gorman, Charles J. Sullivan, D.D., Rev. William Kirwin, O.M.I., and Rev. Arthur Connors, O.M.I., Buffalo.

DEVAULT—The funeral of Mrs. Marie Louise (Chaille) Devault will take place Saturday morning at 8 o'clock from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Louis Blais, 22 Columbia street. A solemn high mass of requiem at St. Joseph's church at 9 o'clock. Burial in St. Joseph's cemetery. Undertakers Amos Archambault & Sons.

CALLAHAN—Died in Lynn, Mass., July 18, William P. Callahan. The funeral will take place Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from the home of his parents, Daniel and Bridget E. (Burke) Callahan, 22 Second avenue. A solemn high mass will be sung at St. Columba's church at 10 o'clock. Burial in St. Patrick's cemetery under the direction of Undertakers James P. O'Donnell & Sons.

MANGAN—Died at the Lowell General Hospital, July 19, Mrs. Sadie E. (Harrington) Mangan. Friends are invited to call at the funeral parlors of Undertakers James P. O'Donnell & Sons. The body will be forwarded to Eden, Vermont, Friday, where the burial will take place. Family lot arrangements are in charge of Undertakers James P. O'Donnell & Sons.

DEATHS
CALLAHAN—William P. Callahan, formerly of Lowell and son of Daniel and Bridget (Burke) Callahan, of 22 Second avenue, this city, died yesterday at the Lynn hospital, Lynn, aged 38 years. For a number of years he had been in the service of the United States government as inspector of immigration. Besides his parents, he leaves his wife, Ruth, three children, Edwin and Leonard; three brothers, Daniel, Frank A. and George L., and three sisters, Mrs. Stephen T. Ward, Miss Margaret Callahan and Rev. Sister Rose Thorne of the Sisters of Charity. The body was brought to this city and was taken to the home of his parents, 22 Second avenue, by Undertakers James P. O'Donnell & Sons. Deceased was an splendid young man of many fine qualities of heart and mind, capable in the discharge of his duties, ever courteous to the public and loyal to his superior officials. As an immigration official, he had charge of the Chinese division in the immigration service at East Boston and was eminently successful in the facility with which he handled the duties of his position. His advice was regarded as invaluable in matters of immigration in the district. A most compassionate young man, he had hosts of friends in Lowell and in Lynn who will mourn with the bereaved family in the irreparable loss that has come to them.

DOHERTY—Mrs. Mary A. Doherty, widow of Frank J. Doherty, died yesterday afternoon at her home, 147 Pleasant street, aged 70 years. She had been a life long resident of the Bellevue district and had a wide circle of friends, having won the respect and esteem of all with whom she became acquainted. A member of the Immaculate Conception parish, she had been prominent in the activities of its religious and charitable organizations and was a devoted attendant of that church during the greater part of her long life. It will be remembered that her late husband was a member of the Immaculate Conception choir and she, too, was deeply interested in the musical services for which that church was noted. Mrs. Doherty was a woman of many estimable traits of character, of cheerful disposition and sincere Christian spirit. She was deeply devoted to her home and her family and was ever ready to respond to the call of distress or to assist a friend in need. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. J. J. Monaghan of Bridgeport, Conn., and Mary A. Doherty, two sons, Fred G. Doherty and J. J. Doherty, three sisters, Mrs. Harriet Harnden, Mrs. Ralph Shickney and Mrs. John J. Harrington; two brothers, Samuel Harnden and Frederick G. Harnden, a grandson and several nieces and nephews.

MANGAN—Mrs. Sadie E. (Harrington) Mangan, wife of Henry T. Mangan, died this morning at the Lowell General Hospital. Mrs. Mangan was born in Eden, Vermont, but had been a resident of this city for over 45 years. For 23 years deceased was a valued employee of the D. L. Page company, retiring from active business about 20 years ago. Mrs. Mangan was a woman of many noble traits of character—kind, sympathetic and charitable. She made friends with all with whom she came in contact. Of retiring, refined nature and a splendid type home body, she will be greatly missed. Besides her husband she leaves to mourn her loss the sisters, Mrs. Hattie H. Wedge, Mrs. Ella Chaffee, both of North Hyde Park, Vermont, and Miss Foyl Harrington of Burlington, Vermont. The body will be taken to the funeral parlors of Undertakers James P. O'Donnell & Sons.

DEVAULT—Mrs. Marie Louise (Chaille) Devault, widow of the late Robert Devault, a former well known piano dealer of this city, died last evening at St. John's hospital, aged 65 years. Deceased had been a resident of this city for the past 54 years. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. E. E. Langle and Miss Cordelia Devault; three sisters, Mrs. Caroline L'Heureux of Cincinnati, O., Mrs. Emma Bennett of Salem and Mrs. Eudine Roy of this city; and a brother, Paul Chaille of Dutton, Que. She was a member of the Third Order of St. Francis and St. Anne's society of St. Joseph's parish. The body was removed to the

I am thankful for what the Vegetable Compound has done for my health and for my family."—Mrs. MARY SAIGER, 944 23rd Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Letters like these testify to the value of the Vegetable Compound. These women speak from the fullness of their hearts. They describe as correctly as they can their conditions: First, those symptoms that affected them most conspicuously; and later the disappearance of those symptoms. They are sincere expressions of gratitude. For nearly fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been so popular with women.

CHERRY & WEBB CO.

If you found your dining room crammed full of saw-horses and boards and carpenters—at 11 in the morning you'd plan to have lunch in the kitchen—and you'd do without the best china, and have a simple, easy meal—BUT—to make up for the change—you'd try to make your lunch extra attractive so the family wouldn't mind—wouldn't you?

That's just what we're up against—the carpenters are taking away our selling space and making our shop hard to work in and rather noisy—so to make up for the inconvenience to the family (our customers)—and keep on selling—it's as essential as dinner to us—we are giving folks extra low prices on all our nice clothes—

We've got to sell a lot of them before Saturday night—You'll help us out—won't you?—It's much to your advantage! The carpenters came before we could get ready for them—and took more room than we expected they would.

You know, after this is all over—we're going to have one of the biggest and finest Ladies' Specialty Shops in the eastern states—a store you'll enjoy shopping in—so try and forgive the confusion now—and come see these wonderful bargains.

VACANCIES AT HOME WILL GIVE DRACUT REAL FOR WORKING GIRLS FIRE PROTECTION

Although usually filled to its capacity, there are at present a few vacancies at the Working Girls' home in Cross street, due to the summer months when girls are away on their vacation, and also to the lack of employment. There are 36 girls at the home now, 17 of whom are permanent boarders, the remainder being day persons who go to the home for their meals. Although the sleeping accommodations are limited, the Sisters will be glad to have young girls as day patrons, and will do their utmost to satisfy the applicants.

The home, established in 1898, is under the direction of the Franciscan Sisters, who take great interest in the welfare of girls in their charge. Since the death of Rev. Mother Euphrosia, superior, the vacancy has not been filled, but a new superior is expected early in August.

TWO DIE IN HOTEL FIRE AT WATERBURY, CONN.

WATERBURY, Conn., July 19.—A second death occurred today as the result of last night's fire which destroyed the Hudson hotel in Exchange place.

The victim was Julian Kramer of Norwich, Conn. The first to die in the fire is supposed to be Alex. Connel of New York and Waterbury. Positive identification is lacking.

The names of those at the hospital

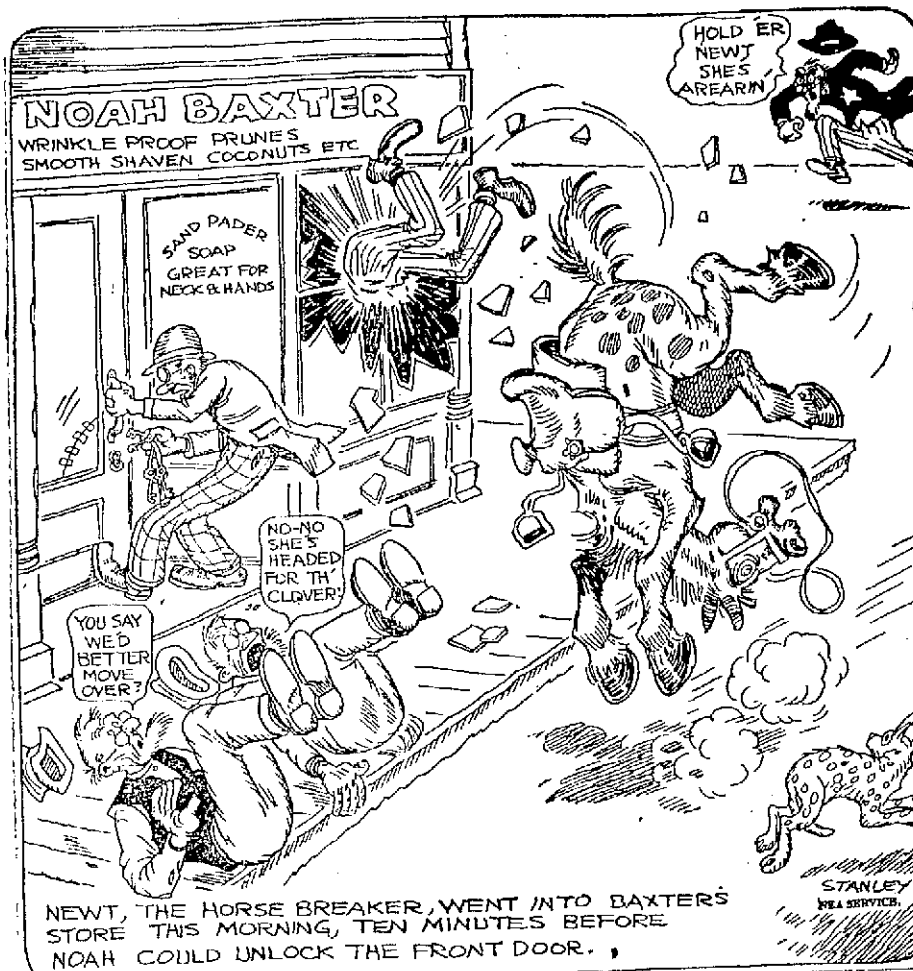

The new triple combination White truck of the Prouty fire department was given a test yesterday afternoon in the presence of underwriters, and was apparently satisfactory. The test was held for three hours. Lunches were served those in attendance at the Navy Yard hose house.

The triple combination consists of hose, chemical and a pump besides two ladders. The ladders are one of the 40-foot extension type and 20-foot roof ladder. The chemical tanks hold 10 gallons of chemicals, while 200 feet of hose is attached to it. After the truck reaches a fire, the driver, by merely pressing a lever, disconnects the rear end of the machine and thus speeds up the pump to the engine. The pump is connected to the engine by a 12-horse-power one, with 16 valves and four cylinders.

are: Miss Evelyn Wallace, Merrill Bronson and Peter Waller of this city and Edward Hatfield of Bristol, Conn.

All will recover. George Cagne of Medford, Mass., who inhaled smoke was discharged.

SEC. OF LABOR DAVIS IN BERLIN

BERLIN, July 19.—(By the Associated Press)—James J. Davis, the American secretary of labor, who is touring Europe and the Orient to study world emigration problems at first hand, returned to Berlin today from Warsaw and prepared to leave immediately for Prague and Vienna.

He later will spend several days in the Ruhr visiting the mines, smelters and factories as he is particularly interested in the economic aspects of the Ruhr situation.

LADY FRANKLIN COUNCIL

Lady Franklin council, Sons and Daughters of Liberty, will hold a basket picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Grogan, Chelmsford, on Saturday, July 21. This date is also the fortieth wedding anniversary of the hosts and they are anxious to have a large number of their friends present at the picnic.

Members attending the picnic should take the Westford street car and get off at the end of the line. Automobiles will take them from there to the house.

WELL KNOWN MAN SAYS NOTHING TO BEAT IT

Was Rundown — Suffered From Indigestion, Acid Risings, Bad Kidneys — Dreco Restores Him to Health.

It is generally acknowledged that stomach trouble is one of the commonest ailments of the body today and one which leads to more serious complications more often than anything else. Yet one which is passed over lightly and given very little heed. Here is a man who tells of his experience for the benefit of others.

Mr. John H. O'Brien, an old-time ball player, well known throughout New England, living at the Hotel Annex, Lowell, says:

"There is nothing to beat good health. It is a most prized possession."

"For years I suffered all agony allotted to any one person. Food, the thought of which nauseated me, laid in my stomach like lead. After every meal I would suffer from indigestion, acid risings, gas would build me up and burn my insides, causing me to belch."

"My kidneys were so bad that I could not enjoy a good night's sleep. I got up every morning tired. Had none of the old pep that really makes life worth living.

"I was run down by my suffering. I grew thin. Even my friends noticed how badly I looked."

"Dreco came to the rescue. This great medicine quickly put me back in the running, feeling as chipper as a two-year-old. All signs of indigestion are gone. No more getting up tired. I sleep like a log, and get up feeling fine. I am stronger and have taken on weight. And appetite—well I just wish you could see me light into my food. And I enjoy every mouthful."

"I hope that every man and woman with the troubles that pulled me down, will benefit by the health restoring powers of this wonderful medicine."

Dreco is not an experiment. It is a safe, harmless combination of natural extracts and contains no dangerous mineral acids or salts. It is nature's own medicine and can be taken with safety into the most delicate system. Dreco is inexpensive and is now dispensed by modern drug stores almost everywhere.

Call today at Green's Drug Store and ask to talk with the expert from the Dreco Laboratories. He will courteously tell you of the merits of this wonderful remedy. Also he will honestly tell you whether or not he thinks Dreco will benefit you. Also Dreco is for sale in Nashua by Nashua Drug Co., 175 Main st.—Adv.

WHITE WOMEN BLAME K. K. K. FOR FLOGGING

LUMBERTON, N. C., July 19.—The grand klall of the K. K. K. in North Carolina and the head of the Fairmont klavern were under subpoena today to produce membership records of the Fairmont organization at the trial here of three men on charges growing out of the flogging of two white women near Princetonville, last April.

Developments drawing the klall into the trial proceedings came last night after two of the men on trial, Johnson Hedgcock and Jule Brogden, in protesting their innocence of any connection with the flogging, had denied on the stand that they were members of the klall. State counsel, in requesting issuance of the subpoenas on the klall officials, said they wanted to determine whether Mike Lawson, chief of police at Fairmont, who is the other defendant, was a member of the organization.

Mrs. Mary Watson, who is a sister of Hedgcock and Mrs. Hattie Purvis, the victims of the alleged flogging, have testified that all three of the accused men were members of a rebel band which entered their homes, took them to a nearby negro church and whipped them.

POLICEMAN KILLED BY AUTO THIEF

SCARSDALE, N. Y., July 19.—Police Sergeant John J. Harrison, was shot and killed by an automobile thief near police headquarters today.

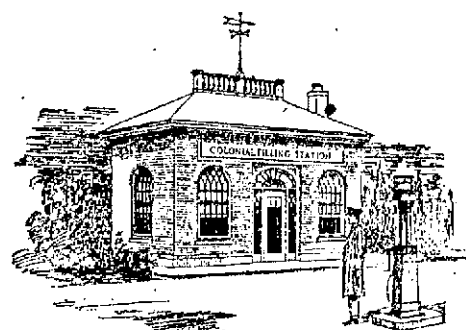

Harrison had gone to investigate a report that a man was stealing an automobile. An hour later, a citizen telephoned the station that Harrison was lying in the street, dead.

A. O. H. IN "FINISH FIGHT" WITH K. K. K.

MONTREAL, July 19.—The Ancient Order of Hibernians in convention here was expected to act today on a resolution pledging it to an active "finish fight" with the K. K. K., denounced in an address yesterday by Judge Patrick O'Donnell of Chicago, founder of the Anti-Klan American Unity league.

Judge O'Donnell, giving an account of the work being done by the American Unity league, an organization designed to maintain racial, religious and social tolerance, made a vigorous attack upon the Klan, characterizing it as a body treasonable to the state.

INQUESTS HELD ON TWO LOCAL DEATHS

Inquests were held today before Associate Justice Edward Fisher in district court of the tragic death of Jose Silva and George Bushy.

The Silva lad died as the result of injuries sustained in being struck by an auto driven by Manuel Romalho on Central street on July 8.

Bushy was employed as a lineman by the New England Telephone and Telegraph Co. and was electrocuted while working on a pole on Gorham street on the morning of June 25.

CARDINAL TO DEDICATE NEW JUNIORATE

The new Juniorate of the Naverian Brothers at Oak Hill, Peabody, which several Lowell boys will enter this fall, will be formally dedicated by His Eminence, William Cardinal O'Connell, on Sunday afternoon, August 5. The cardinal will be assisted by the pastors and other clergy from the parishes where the brothers are engaged in school work. St. Patrick's parish in Lowell will be represented.

Rev. Brother Osmund, C.F.X., for 10 years superior of St. Patrick's Boys

school in this city, is in charge of the new juniorate. As already announced, the juniorate is intended for a house of study for boys and young men who have not yet completed their course of study in high school and who have the intention of consecrating themselves to the cause of Christian education in the Naverian order. The location in Peabody gives the aspirants an excellent opportunity to pursue their studies under the most favorable conditions. The property is extensive, the buildings are numerous and adequate to provide for sixty or more aspirants.

The present enrollment is made up of boys and young men from various sections of the country. A large percentage, however, comes from East Boston, Lawrence, Lowell, Somerville and Worcester. For admittance to the juniorate, the requirements must necessarily be strict. The age limit is between fourteen and eighteen years.

Earl of Northesk Not to Wed Today

CHICAGO, July 19.—Jessica Brown, former Follies star, and the Earl of Northesk, refused a marriage license in New York on June 5 on the grounds that the former's divorce here was illegal, have been here since Monday and, although they have obtained legal information that there is no bar to their marriage here, deny they intend to be married today.

Price of Gasoline to Drop To Ten Cents

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 19.—Predictions that the price of gasoline, reduced to 12c a gallon here yesterday by independent dealers, would fall to 10c or less within a day or two, were heard today. The large companies still are selling at 19c. The smaller ones, in a rate war among themselves, have reduced it to 12c. Rumors are afloat that the large companies are considering a plan to fix a price so low that the independents cannot meet it.

France's Wheat Crop Sufficient

PARIS, July 19.—(By the Associated Press)—For the first time in many years, France will not be obliged to import wheat after August, as its crop of the grain, harvesting of which is now beginning, is much larger than expected. This crop situation is expected to increase the value of the franc.

An aspirant must have completed the grammar school course, be healthy in mind and body, have a cheerful disposition, possess ordinary ability to pursue his studies, be willing to obey and show by his actions that he has a love for all things which help to make good citizens.

Rev. Bro. Osmund is prepared to furnish all information. His address is Oak Hill, Andover street, Peabody.

with the rail mills for the curved track and switches for this corner and that they should be here inside of three or four weeks. As soon as the rail is received it will be only a matter of a week before the new curve will be laid and in operation.

The cross-over and curve as now constructed is a source of danger and many accidents have been narrowly averted there by the quick action of operators and automobilists. Electric cars going up Merrimack street bound for Broadway and the Highlands cross from the right-hand track to the left-hand track at a point in front of the Y.M.C.A., where the street is fairly narrow, and then swing sharply into Dutton street, leaving only a clearance of a foot or so from the sidewalk. Many machines have been caught both at the corner and where the cars swing from Merrimack street and, with the great increase of automobile traffic in the past year, members of the public service board and many citizens have considered this situation too dangerous to be left as it is. The board notified Manager McCormick of its decision in this matter and he agreed with them that the corner should be made double-tracked to do away with the cross-over, and immediately ordered the material for this work.

Ten Injured in Bloody Street Battle

VERA CRUZ, July 19.—Ten persons, including two policemen, were wounded in a bloody street battle between police and members of the red union of revolutionary tenants who refused to pay rent. The trouble had its inception partly in an attempt by the tenants to haul down the flag of the republic which a landlord had hoisted over his building. When the police started to take the troublemakers to jail, the tenants left behind began to shoot and throw stones, bringing down three of the police from their horses. The population is in a state of great excitement.

"HIRAM'S" HOME COMING

Another memorable date, July 23rd, will be added to the present month—the date when United States Senator Hiram Johnson of California will return from Europe and be the honored guest in a grand reception in New York.

It will be recalled that Hiram Johnson in 1912 was the Bull Moose candidate for vice-president on the ticket headed by the late Col. Roosevelt. He will be recalled as "Hiram the Progressive," Hiram of the storm country, the man of thunder, who sets his foot upon the sea and rides upon the storm. Twelve years have passed since then, and in all the transformations wrought by the hand of time during that period, that of Hiram Johnson is perhaps the greatest. But 12 years ago he would have been received by a committee and a throng of grateful citizens composed of "trust-busters" advocates of "social justice" crying out against the interests, "predatory wealth," fossilized judges, molly-coddles, and similar entities. Now, however, the complexion of the senator's supporters has been radically changed even as has been the senator himself. Among the committee that will have charge of the reception to the senator are some of the leading bankers, traders, and publicists of the country. Heading the list is Otto H. Kahn, then comes Frank A. Munsey of the Munsey Trust company, Charles M. Schwab, chairman of the board of directors of the Bethlehem Steel corporation; Clarence H. Mackay of the Postal Cable and Telegraph company, together with many other representatives of big business and high finance.

What it may be asked, is the purpose of this reception to the western senator and what are the reasons for holding it in New York? There are various reasons, no doubt; but the chief and only one of general interest to the public is to give a strong initial impetus to the movement to make Senator Johnson the successor of Warren G. Harding in the White House. True, the undertaking is one of rather large proportions; but the men at the head are apparently convinced that with Senator Johnson they can brush aside not only Mr. Harding, but also Henry Ford, whose name haunts New York financiers as a veritable nightmare. Let us calmly await the demonstration in which Senator Johnson will project his sombrero into the political arena.

GROWING DISRESPECT FOR LAW

It seems that the great need of the hour is respect for the law and the constitution. People may differ upon matters of politics such as the tariff, the bonus and the ship subsidy bill; but on questions affecting our form of government and the supremacy of law, there should be no difference and can be no difference among true Americans.

During the war the Germans were held up to public obloquy in the allied countries, but he it said of the German subjects, that they were true to their country and their flag, and ready at all times to give their lives for the fatherland. They had been trained in the school of loyalty and discipline from childhood and when the test came, they willingly made every sacrifice demanded of them by their government. This spirit of sacrifice and loyalty is needed in this country today—needed to bring together all the forces of patriotism and opposition to the type of radicalism represented by Senator La Follette, the I.W.W., the socialists and the various isms that, taken together, constitute a menace to free government in this country. The present is a time when true statesmen are needed to marshal the political forces of the country in support of the constitution; to stand for the rights of the people as guaranteed by that constitution and in opposition to the elements that would tear down the structure of popular freedom which is enjoyed to a greater extent in this country than anywhere else in the world.

PROFITEERING DUTIES

President Harding's promise to "shorten the bridge between producer and consumer and to reduce the toll that must be paid for passing over it" can best be fulfilled by recommending to congress the repeal or the decrease of many of the profiteering duties imposed by the Fordney-McCumber tariff law. This device for rewarding the individuals and interests that contribute to the political funds of the republican party is the chief opportunity and protection of those whom the president describes as "some who are disposed to take tolls from both the consuming and the producing public."

The present tax of 31 cents a pound on raw wool provides a fine illustration of the way in which the republican tariff operates to victimize the grower as well as the ultimate consumer. On every one of the four pounds of wool in a man's ordinary suit of clothes this republican tax of 31 cents becomes 75 cents, two and a half times more by the time it reaches the final purchaser.

There is no certainty and little probability that the producer of the wool will receive 31 cents a pound more for his product because of the republican tariff. There is no question, however, that by reason of this tariff he will have to pay, in his character of consumer, at least 75 cents a pound for all the wool he buys in manufactured form.

FOR A CLEANER CITY

The move on the part of the Planning board for a cleaner city is in the interest of the public health and common decency. Often in the past, such movements have been started only to be heard of for a few weeks at most, and by that time everybody lapsed back into the old habit of casting waste paper and other forms of rubbish into the streets. It is noticeable that on certain streets, particularly where there are many chil-

Clean Deaths—No Pain

Many examples of pain English are published from time to time but an advertisement that appeared in the columns of an Indian paper must be among the best. Here it is, word for word: "Mahomedman, hair-cutter and clean shaver. Gentlemen's throats cut with very sharp razors, with great care and skill. No irritating feeling afterward. A trial solicited."

"I hear that a cheap substitute for ice has been invented," said the first ice magnate excitedly. "You don't say so," exclaimed the other ice merchant. "Yes, I don't know much about it, but the promoters of the corporation claim that it will leave a wet spot on the back doorstep exactly like that left by a chunk of ice, melting and at half the cost."

Enjoying Poor Health

Mrs. Brown's poor husband had unfortunately been laid up for six months. But the glad news that he was on the high road to recovery had come at last. "I'm so glad to hear that your husband is getting better," remarked a kindly lady to Mrs. Brown, one day. "Well, so am I. He was getting along so nicely last week, but now the doctor says he's got the convalescence. Isn't it hard luck?"

Optimism to 10th Degree

Some people are always optimists. "Don't worry," said one of his friends, "always looks on the bright side of things." "Why?" "Well, the other day I went with him to buy a pair of shoes. He didn't try them on and when he got home he found that a nail was sticking right up through the heel of one." "Did he take them back?" "No, he said he supposed the nail was put there intentionally to keep the foot from sliding forward in the shoe."

Just Father, That's All

A fashionably dressed woman, accompanied by four well-dressed children registered at a Springfield hotel and immediately went to their room. A half-hour later a seedy-looking man entered up to the desk and informed the clerk that he was a member of the party. Not knowing just where to place him, the clerk hesitated for some time and finally asked him if he was the chauffeur. The man sighed wearily. "Yes," he said. "I am the chauffeur, the husband, the father, and the chauffeur, and I have paid off the bill for 20 years," then, pettishly, "and I want to go up to the room."

And the dum dom dom!

To the Yucca and the Yalu, where the bell-topped temples are;

And remember there are castles left

And Spain!"

But I hear a whisper steady, blowing

"Leave the lands beyond to others;

Our wee woodfolk are your brothers;

MAN ABOUT TOWN

There have been, within the past few days, several narrow escapes from death and electric collisions at the corner of Merrimack and Prescott streets. Automobiles, especially out-of-town drivers, come down Merrimack street at a fairly good speed and, unaware of the fact that the electric car is going to swing into Prescott street, fail to slacken speed as they near the turn. On Monday morning of this week one automobile was unable to stop, his car because of the slippery condition of the block-paved street and was compelled to run into the curbings to stop the progress of his machine when he perceived that the electric car was to turn directly in front of him. The carsters do everything in their power to warn the automobilist, but it seems impossible to stop in a very short distance.

A well-known local engineer believed that great things will be accomplished in the near future by electricity. He says: "Slowly but surely we move into the Electric Age. Production of electricity this year will be increased to 11 million homes, two and a half million stores and industrial plants, supplies the power used by more than five million manufacturing and commercial establishments. The solution of our coal problem is to burn the coal in the mines, generating power and an electric basis—by lighting, cooking and heat all by electricity." That dream may be realized in the near future.

PORT ARTHUR, Tex., July 19.—Immigrant influx of I.W.W. crusaders, estimated to total more than 20,000, found this city of 22,000 outwardly unconcerned. The authorities have announced that all persons without visible means of support will be arrested. If convicted as vagrants, they will be assigned to work on road and bridge-building gangs. There is an abundance of work of this kind as a result of improvements made possible through a $2,000,000 road bond issue.

GIRL SAVED BY "RAT" IN HAIR

KENNEBUNK, Me., July 19.—Two girls on a Massachusetts licensed motorcycle struck a rough place in the road near Gordon's garage and the driver was thrown 10 feet into the air and 15 feet ahead, striking on her back. She was unconscious when taken into the garage, but recovered, and in less than half an hour was on her way.

U. S. CROPS IN GOOD CONDITION

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Generally favorable conditions for crops prevailed during the first half of July and livestock is in good condition, semi-monthly reports to the department of agriculture indicated today. The farm labor shortage continues general. Cotton continued to improve on the whole and growth made good progress, although the crop is still somewhat backward. Fields are clean and well cultivated.

INVESTIGATION OF FIGHT PICTURES

LOS ANGELES, July 19.—Expectations that the federal grand jury soon would begin an investigation of the bringing here from Shelby, Mont., of motion pictures of the Dempsey-Gilbert fight July 4, were expressed by government officials here today. It was forecast that indictments charging conspiracy to violate the federal law against interstate commerce in such pictures would be sought.

NECESSARY?

"The 12-hour day is a necessity in the steel business."—Judge Gary.

Twelve hours a day.
Pretty easy, hey?
Get up in the morning when the dawn's still gray:
Work in smoke and heat,
Grab a bite to eat,
Stumble home at nightfall on yer achin' feet!
Who cares how YOU feel?
Gotta have the steel!
Sack you in a minute if you make a squeal;
"Slavery," you say?
G'wan, you get your pay,
Gary says we gotta have a twelve-hour day!

Twelve hours a day!
Work—and hit the hay.
Hardly see your children, never get no play.
Sunday? That's a shriek!
Listen, while I speak,
There AIN'T any Sunday in a steel-man's week!
Sleep, and work and then
Do the same again,
Gotta have the ingots and who cares for men?
Can't be no delay—
Dividends to pay;
Sweat 'em out of labor on a twelve-hour day'

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 18.—The bodies of W. M. McClure, 54, prominent Kansas City Undertaker, and Mrs. Bula Thompson, 35, his bookkeeper, lay today in the silent dusk of the undertaking rooms in which they met death last night. Inquiry continued by the police failed to reconstruct acceptably from meager details the circumstances which led to the dual tragedy.

McClure was married and had two daughters. Mrs. Thompson, a widow, long had been employed by his firm. Fred Webb, negro porter, found McClure bending over Mrs. Thompson's body at the bottom of the elevator shaft last night and was ordered by McClure

Keeler, at 80
Goes To Work

After fourteen years of enforced idleness because of ill health, J. H. Keeler, widely known Maryland citizen, has gained forty pounds at the age of 80 years and gone back to work every day. Mr. Keeler, who resides at 3705 Thirty-Second street, Mt. Airy, Md., gives entire credit for his extraordinary rehabilitation to Tania.

"My stomach was in such terrible condition I could hardly digest a thing," says Mr. Keeler. "It would swell to nearly twice its normal size and I would have frequent pains through my stomach and back. I felt so weak, dizzy and miserable. I was out of the question. In fact, my friends gave me up on three or four different occasions."

"Five months ago I began taking Tania and improved from the very first bottle. I now eat anything on the table, have gained forty pounds, and am back at work every day. Actually, I feel like a boy again. I would be ungrateful if I did not praise Tania."

Tania is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

NEW HAVEN, July 18.—Patrick Murphy, 102, of Monument, Colo., the oldest Knight of Columbus in the world, has been found after being missing for 48 hours from Colorado Springs; whence he had gone on a vacation. He was stated last night at national headquarters of the Knights of Columbus here.

Murphy attempted to set a record by being the oldest person to climb Pike's Peak. He set out alone and after 48 hours a searching party found him half way up Pike's Peak. He descended only after being assured he would be accommodated on a new attempt in September.

DAUGHERTY'S SON IS WORKING IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, July 18.—Major Draper M. Daugherty, son of Harry M. Daugherty, United States attorney general, who fled from a Connecticut sanatorium on June 17, has been in Chicago, employed as a salesman for a coal company for the past month, according to the Chicago Herald-Examiner today.

"I came here to get a fresh start—to work—and I am working," the newspaper quoted him as saying. Major Daugherty said the publicity in which he figured last spring in connection with the Dorothy King murder case in New York "knocked him to pieces," according to the Herald-Examiner.

The building will be remodeled and opened in the fall, it was said.

new girls will be kept permanently, if they make good. He said each employee will be required to make an individual application for employment.

Meetings to End Strike

BOSTON, July 18.—Special meetings of local unions of telephone operators in centers throughout the area served by the New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. were summoned for today to discuss calling off the strike declared by several thousand operators, more than a month ago, to enforce demands for wage increases and a seven-hour day.

Delegates attending a special meeting of the regional council of the operators' unions last night announced early today at the close of a nine-hour session that the local unions would be asked to act immediately. The meeting of the council followed a conference between Miss Julia O'Connor, head of the strike forces and General Manager Geo. H. Dresser of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Co., held at the former's request. At this conference, Mr. Dresser outlined the terms on which the company would re-employ as many of the strikers as possible at unchanged wages. These terms were discussed at the long session of the regional council and on them the local unions will act today.

In its statement of terms, later published as an advertisement in newspapers this morning, the company insisted on its former provision that all operators engaged since the strike began, might retain their positions if they wished. In the matter of seniority, it was stipulated, operators returning to work subsequent to July 2, would be junior to those who remained at work, or returned to their positions prior to July 2. Striking operators who returned to work after July 2, would be restored to their rights under the company's benefit plan after a probationary period of one year.

members of the wage committee of the regional council who accompanied her left yesterday's conference with General Manager Dresser, the council was summoned and the long meeting followed. At the close, Miss O'Connor issued this formal statement:

"The New England council of Telephone Operators' unions at a special meeting tonight, reviewed the report of its committee which conferred with General Manager Dresser today. The action of the council on this report will be submitted to the membership at special meetings of all the locals to be held this morning for ratification."

Pickets Withdrawn

LAWRENCE, July 18.—All pickets were withdrawn from the local telephone exchange this forenoon, and a special meeting of the local union was called to vote on the question of calling off the strike.

It was reported that another union member quit the strike today and returned to work.

Pickets were in front of the exchange building all night and early today, but there was no shouting and the strikers watched several automobile loads of girls arrive at the exchange in silence. There were more police on duty today than was the case yesterday.

ing newspapers, still damp with the ink from the presses, was handed to him. Above the rear of the engine, he shouted out, laughingly: "I want to be the first news vendor to sell New York morning newspapers in San Francisco on the evening of the day of their publication."

Lieutenant Maughan will follow the itinerary mapped out for his first flight, which ended in failure near St. Joseph, Mo., after the gasoline feed pipe became clogged.

Four stops will be made en route, at McCook Field, Dayton, Ohio; Municipal field, St. Joseph, Mo.; air mail field, Cheyenne, Wyo.; and Salsburg, Utah.

Complete Schedule

Maughan's schedule prepared prior to his first attempted, trans-continental flight, on a basis of 150 miles an hour speed is the one he is using today. Counting only time in the air, not including 20-minute stops at the way stations, the schedule follows:

Mitchell field—Dayton, 550 miles, 3 hours, 20 minutes.
Dayton—St. Joseph, 550 miles, 3 hrs., 25 minutes.
St. Joseph—Cheyenne, 530 miles, 3 hours, 20 minutes.
Cheyenne—Salsburg, 470 miles, 3 hours.
Salsburg—Crispy field, 500 miles, 3 hrs., 6 minutes.

INVESTIGATE NEED OF NEW SUB-STATION

The postal situation in the Highlands district was thoroughly investigated recently by an inspector of the postoffice department, Boston, who, in company with Postmaster DeLisle, made a tour of the district to ascertain for the postmaster-general if a sub-postoffice is necessary there.

The request for a postal station in that district was made by Congressman Rogers after he had received many requests from business firms and persons living there. Postmaster DeLisle is thoroughly in accord with the plan and will do all in his power to have such a station installed.

Work on the new station in Bridge street for the Centralville district is progressing rapidly and as soon as the necessary alterations are completed, the equipment manufacturers will be ready to install the equipment. The postmaster believes this work will be finished inside of five weeks.

NEW YORK, July 18.—Number 22 was back on Babe Ruth's minor league just to greet him when he was today. He got his latest homer in yesterday's game with Detroit, when Walter Hoyt held the Tigers to one run and the Yankees won the first game of the series in the mid-western city, 4 to 1. Of the four runs made by the New York team, three were non-strikeouts, one, the Babe's, and the others from the slings of Dugan and Ward.

Boston and Chicago broke even in their double header in the Illinois city, Boston winning the first game, 5 to 3, and Chicago the second, 11 to 2. In the first game, Platteau, the Boston outfielder, pounded out a fence bouncer, and in the second he took a three-bag sprint.

The Cardinals won a fast game from the Giants, 6 to 4, playing in the Polo grounds, and the Cincinnati Reds, defeating Brooklyn, climbed a little nearer the top of the National league ladder. The Giants and Reds have each won four more than Cincinnati. The Reds trimmed the Brooklyn team, 8 to 4 in a quiet and gentlemanly game.

In Cleveland, the Senators got one run and then took a little rest while the home team ran around the bases four times, result, 4 to 1.

Although out of nearly two to one, St. Louis, playing over the home ground, won the first game, 5 to 3, and the Philadelphia pluggers and took the game 2 to 0.

In a close fought game in Philadelphia, the home team beat Chicago, 7 to 4, and the Cardinals defeated Boston, from the latter's grounds, winning 5 to 1.

Judge Landis May Be Called Upon to Rule on Babe Ruth's Trick Bat

By N. E. A. Service
CLEVELAND, O., July 18.—Babe Ruth is sure the original cuss.

When the Babe isn't busy making home runs he is pulling something that will keep Judge Landis and Ben Johnson interested.

In 1921 Ruth made 59 home runs. The lively ball in use was regarded as the big reason for the Babe's remarkable feat.

If the Babe should come through this year with a goodly share of circuit drives in all probability an investigation of the bat he uses will be demanded.

On July 2 Ruth started to use a bat, the like of which has never been seen in the baseball world. Since that date Ruth has been on a war path, and has greatly increased his home run record.

Rule 15 of the playing code says that the bat used in baseball must be round, not over two and three-fourths inches in diameter at the thickest part, not more than 42 inches in length and be entirely of hard wood.

The bat that Ruth is now using with such success is all that the rule turned out to be. Instead of being turned out of one piece of wood, the bat is made of four distinct sections, which are glued together.

This unusual bat is said to be the outgrowth of an idea advanced by Sam Crawford, in his day one of the greatest hitters in the game has ever produced. The bats are now being turned out at Whittier, Calif., Crawford being interested in the company that is making them.

With the ordinary bat there are always parts of the wood that are weak because of the grain. As a matter of fact, the grain of the wood is such that it comes into contact with the ball. Crawford's idea does away entirely with this weakness in the bat. The bat is constructed of four sections of the very best selected wood, so that it is uniform throughout. It is known as the "quadribuilt" bat, and the claim is made that it is many times stronger than the one-piece affair.

Has Ruth a right to use such a bat? Does such a bat conform to the rules of baseball?

It may be necessary for Ben Johnson, Judge Landis and the other high court of baseball to pass on this question.

The four-piece bat unquestionably offers an opportunity for trickery. If such a bat were loaded with the point of contact with a heavy substance, would it cause the ball to travel farther?

Would a cork center in the bat make it easier to hit?

MANTY TO BOX JACKS

N. E. Featherweight Champion Meets English Battler Here Tonight

After a full of several weeks the Moody club will resume boxing here tonight at the Crescent rink with a well balanced card, headed by Young Manty, of New Bedford, New England featherweight champion, and Freddie Jacks, English featherweight, in the main event of ten rounds.

The outcome of considerable importance to Lowell, as the winner will no doubt be matched to meet Lowell's classmate, Billy Murphy, in the near future. Also Jacks is signed for the main event of ten rounds.

CHARLIE MANTY

up to meet Kid Roy, formerly George Parker of Lowell next week at Montreal.

To get a line on the two performers friends of Manty and "Parker" are expected to turn out in large numbers. As both Jacks and Manty have appeared here before, fans are well familiar with their style and ability, and hence little need be said of them. Manty last appearance in Lowell was against Billy Murphy during the past winter. His exhibition will long be remembered by those who were at the ringside. Jacks has not been here for several years, but the impression he made against Chaney and Valger is easily recalled.

Kid Merrier of Salem and Frank Fucio of Lynn are listed for the semi-final. Joe O'Brien of South Boston and Mickey Nelson of George Village are paired in one preliminary for seven rounds.

Johnny Duff of Lowell and Tony Roy of Manchester are on the program for the other six-rounders.

GRANTHAM IS CALLED A SECOND EVERS

By N. E. A. Service
CHICAGO, July 18.—The second edition of Johnny Evers is George F. Grantham.

When Evers, alias the "Keystone King," and author of "Touching Second," removed his uniform and departed Chicago he never expected to see his equal again.

But Bill Killefer, who believes in developing youth, found Grantham in a third baseman's outfit in the Western league last season, on his squad this spring.

With two infield positions open, second base and shortstop, Killefer asked his scout what he knew about the middle sack.

"Lead me out to it and I'll show you," was Grantham's reply.

Killefer did, with the result that he claims he has the second edition of Johnny Evers in his young prodigy.

At present Grantham is settling the National league by becoming the leading base stealer. He has passed Max Carey, who has held the honor for years. He is a long, lanky fellow, another artist at that line, and is regarded as the hardest runner in the league to catch on a steal.

Grantham does not take the big lead of Carey or Cobb, but he gets the jump on the pitcher. He breaks away like a streak, uses a long stride and hooks his foot to the base perfectly.

In fielding Grantham already is showing promise of making good Killefer's boast. He has a big, powerful arm, and is a solid runner, the intangible bonus Wagner, soaps the ball with an underhand scoop, and does not give up on a roller until it has reached him.

When Killefer succeeded Johnny Evers as manager of the Cubs he announced that he did not want worn out veterans. He was going to put together a fast, snappy machine. That's just what he has done, and Grantham is an important link in the chain.

Grantham bats from both sides of the plate, was born May 24, 1900, at Elgin, Ark., weighs 2 feet 10 inches and weighs 155 pounds.

REPORT FIRPO HOLDING OUT FOR MORE MONEY

NEW YORK, July 18.—The negotiations toward a proposed world heavyweight boxing match between Jack Dempsey, titleholder, and Luis Angulo Firpo in the United States or Argentina may be continued today at an expected conference between Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, and Tex Rickard, promoter.

While the principal difficulty in connection with the proposed bout is thought to be its title, it also was understood that another phase of the discussions began yesterday among Rickard, Kearns, Firpo and Jimmy Le Foret, trainer of the South American challenger, cropped out in the form of large financial demands by Firpo.

SILESIA TAKES RHODE ISLAND TEAM, 9-8

A sixth inning rally in which three runs crossed the pan enabled the Silesia mills team to defeat the Centredale team of Rhode Island by an 9 to 8 score at Silesia park last evening. Ruba Greenhalgh pitched for the winners and had one bad inning, the fourth, when Centredale scored all its runs. Reynolds, Williams and Greenhalgh were the heavy hitters with each a three-bagger in his credit. The score:

Four international league pennants "crossed" in an exciting game at the backstop at Baltimore Orioles' park. But Manager Jack Dunn isn't satisfied with merely 10-9-30-20-20 bags. He's after one for 1923. And indications are he'll get it. His team is going strong. Win or lose, though, the outfit is due for a general retooling when the season's over, say the Baltimore scribes.

Kinks o' the Links

by "PRO"

When an opponent's ball strikes that of a competitor on the fairway, causing the ball to roll a considerable distance and then come to rest in a rough spot that makes it almost impossible to play the ball, what is the proper procedure? The main point in dispute is as to whether the ball can be replaced or must be dropped.

When a player's ball is struck by that of an opponent on the fairway, the player has the right to lift his ball and drop it as near as possible to the place from which it was moved. In such a happening the ball cannot be replaced on the fairway. That is permissible only on the putting green. The ball must be dropped on the fairway.

In a match game between A and B, the second shot of A's is about 50 yards from the hole. He finds up with the club. A discovers some loose impediment on the green that he believes may possibly interfere with the roll of his ball. He has the right to remove such impediment from the putting green even though his ball is not on same.

The player has such a right even though he is not on the green. The rule says the player has such a right irrespective of the position of the player's ball. That extends the above situation.

TWILIGHT LEAGUE GAME

West Ends to Play Lincolns on So. Common Tonight—Connors vs. Garrity

With "Dukey Connors and "Hank" Garrity on the card to oppose each other when the West Ends and the Lincolns meet in their Twilight league game on the South common tonight, a fine battle of southpaws is in prospect.

Connors broke into baseball as a pitcher, but his ability to hit and play the initial sack, found managers anxious to have him in every game, saving the mound for the other pitcher. He is a right hander and as he has been trying out his wing for the past several days he feels that he will come into his own tonight.

Garrity's ability on the mound is fresh in the memory of local fans. While twirling for the South Ends in another pitcher, he pitched a sensational ball. His great duel with Morris of the Y.M.C. and his classy exhibition against the hard hitting Highland Davlins proved that he possesses a world of stuff.

Both pitchers will be backed up by a strong lineup and the game is expected to be a close one. It will start at 8:15 o'clock with Wally Lyons and Tommy Hickey in charge.

As the St. Peter's Cadets and Fort Banks teams are to meet on the common Friday night, the league game scheduled for that evening, between the Lowell Americans and West Ends will be played on the South common Saturday afternoon.

FAILS WITH CHAMPIONS, GOES BIG WITH BRAVES

By N. E. A. Service
BOSTON, July 18.—How many ball players would welcome a transfer from a world champion to a tail-end and end of the line? The answer is: many.

When mid-season trades were made in the past the star who was being shuffled off from the pot of gold was rarely financially to iron the kitchen in his temper.

It frequently was agreed to split one or two full shares in a world series among the players, but the money was never paid.

But the custom was wiped out when the major leagues put the ban on trades after June 15.

The recent exchange between the Giants and the Boston Braves has resulted in the development of a catcher who could not be handled by John J. McGraw.

Earl Smith, instead of kicking over the traces when he received his release ship to the Boston Braves immediately pushed Mickey O'Neil to the bench, played so brilliantly for the Braves during the first week that Manager Fred Mitchell said he was confident that by 100 games he would be rated the leading catcher in the league.

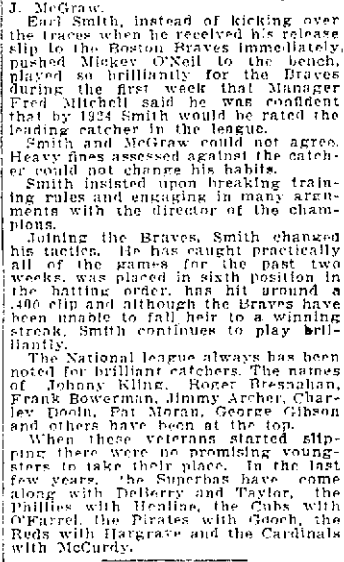

Smith and McGraw could not agree. Heavy lines assessed against the catcher would not change his habits.

Smith insisted upon breaking training rules and engaging in many arguments with the director of the championship.

Joining the Braves, Smith changed his tactics. He has caught practically all of the games for the past two weeks and is in sixth position in the batting order, has hit around a .400 clip and although the Braves have been unable to win since Smith's arrival, Smith continues to play brilliantly.

The National league always has been rich in brilliant catchers. The names of Johnny Kling, Roger Bresnahan, Frank Bowerman, Jimmy Archer, Charles Smith, Pat Moran, George Gibson and others are familiar to the fans.

When these veterans started slipping there were no promising youngsters to take their place. In the last few years the Braves have come along with Delahanty and Taylor, the Phillies with Hendrix, the Cubs with Campbell, the Pirates with Gooch, the Reds with Hargrave and the Cardinals with McGraw.

Puzzling Plays

By Billy Evans

The Play
Here is a play that involves juggling of fly ball.

There is a runner on third and one man out. The batsman hits a fly ball to center. The left and center fielders start after the ball. The left fielder makes a play on the ball, but as the ball strikes his hand he stumbles and the ball is knocked into the air.

The center fielder, who is nearby, completes the catch by getting the ball before it touches the ground.

The runner on third, who has his base until the completion of the catch, the left fielder had merely intercepted the ball.

What about this play?

The Interpretation
The run counts. The runner on third held his base until the fly ball touched the hands of the center fielder. The left fielder did not retain the ball, and that the play was completed by the center fielder, has no bearing on the play.

The center fielder was made as to completion of the catch, fielders would be constantly tossing the ball around to keep base runners up in the air.

The rule states if a base runner who holds his base in a fly ball, shall have the right to advance the moment such fly ball touches the hands of a fielder.

SPORT SALAD

By BILLY EVANS

Here is a story the players are telling on a former star catcher, now acting as coach for one of the big league teams, of this year the former star receiver was sent south in charge of the pitchers and catchers of his club. He was instructed to get them in the best possible shape before the arrival of the regulars.

It seems the sporting editor of one of the papers thought it would be a good idea to give the fans of the home town a little dope on what the battery players were doing in the south. Not far in advance of the main salad we were told the coach said as follows:

"Please send 200 words every evening to the editor. Do up some new angle each day, so the staff will have variety." Here is the wire that came back from the south.

"Sorry. Impossible for me to send 200 different words every day. I can't spell that many."

FOHL TO SUCCEED MIXED FOURSOMES PLAY AT LONGMEADOW

CHANCE AS MANAGER

By N. E. A. Service
BOSTON, Mass., July 18.—It is almost an assured fact that Lee Fohl, present manager of the St. Louis Browns, will handle the Boston Red Sox next season.

Frank Chance's contract is a one-year affair. While Chance has done well in his position, it is practically certain that he will retire at the close of the season.

Lee Fohl is in a way a protégé of Bob Quinn, the new president of the Boston club. There is hardly a doubt that Quinn will take Fohl to Boston, where he has been working with success as the leader of the Browns.

When Quinn was business manager of the Columbus team of the American Association, that club had a minor league farm at Akron. Quinn started Fohl in the managerial game by placing him in the line. Fohl, however, was taken from Akron to Columbus. When Quinn took charge at St. Louis he selected Fohl to lead the Browns.

Fohl's ability as a manager has never been fully appreciated. He always has been a team up in the race. There is nothing flashy about him, however, and he has never been pressed against from the house tops as less capable leaders have. As a result Fohl is getting in the line of the best managers in the system of managing a club has always met with success and it's the games won that count in baseball.

WILLIAMS AND BATES IN TENNIS MATCH

BOSTON, July 18.—Eight players who survived the fourth round play in the competition for the Longwood bowl singles championship will compete in the round before the semifinals in the 21st annual Longwood bowl tennis tournament today. Six of those remaining were seeded in the draw.

The match scheduled between B. Norman Williams, 24, of Bryn Mawr, former national singles champion and Wallace Bates of San Francisco, who yesterday eliminated Missusuke Fukuda, champion of Japan, was expected to develop keen competition. Other matches of probable equal interest to be played were scheduled as follows:

Carl Fischer of Brynaw, Pa., vs. Arnold B. Rice, Longwood, vs. Nathaniel Kishin, Longwood, vs. Seilbhorn Kishin, Longwood.

Double contenders favorites came through yesterday without upsets and the real tests were expected today, when Williams will again be expected to meet the Japanese Davis cup team, Zenzu Shimizu and Fukuda. The match between Bates and Snodgrass and C. Fischer and Fischer, was also regarded with doubt as to the outcome.

Amateur Ball

The St. Peter's Cadets have organized a junior baseball team and would like to play the Textile campus Saturday on the South common next Sunday afternoon. Call 5683-R after 6 p. m.

The Y.B.H.A. defeated the Young Judaea club in their second game of their series Monday evening, the score being 6 to 3. "Red" Sandler pitched brilliant for the winners, allowing but two scattered hits in seven innings. The lineup of the winning team was as follows: Borash ss, Poyer 2b, Shapiro 1b, H. Borach c, Mankiel cf, Buysarsky lf, Levin 3b, Feldman 3b, M. Shapiro rf, Sandler p. The score by innings:

Y. B. H. A. .... 0 3 0 2 0 - 6 3 2
Judaea ..... 1 0 0 0 2 0 - 3 2 3

The St. Peter's Cadets will play the strong Coast Guard Defense team of Fort Banks, Boston Harbor, on the South common at 6 o'clock tomorrow evening. As an added attraction, the Fort Banks band will give a concert between innings. The Cadets will use their regular lineup in an effort to keep their 1923 state clean. A practice session will be held this evening. All Cadets are asked to be on hand.

The Buffaloes defeated the Mysteries last Sunday by a 2 to 1 score. Last night they defeated the Pawtucket Blues.

MASTER PRINTERS JOIN MANY FIREMEN FOR MUTUAL BENEFIT

GOTHENBURG, Sweden, July 19.—(By Associated Press).—The establishment of an international bureau of master printers in Sweden is one of the results of the world congress of master printers which has just ended in Gothenburg. This meeting of export printers was attended by one hundred and fifty delegates from eight countries, including the United States, England, France, Germany, Italy, Spain, Sweden, Denmark and Norway.

It was sent forth that central bureau was needed in order to collect and distribute information regarding industrial disputes and settlement, means of combating unemployment, new methods of cost accounting, development of standardization of paper presses, etc., the establishment of unit prices, and similar topics of general interest to the trade. The meeting passed a resolution that the Swedish Association of Master Printers be invited to open such a central bureau, and the invitation was accepted.

A bulletin will be issued in English, French and German, and the financial support of the central bureau will come from the various national bodies of printers who avail themselves of its service.

TYPHOID'S LOW DEATH RATE

NEW YORK, July 16.—Control of typhoid fever has made such progress that in 1922 the death rate for this disease was the lowest ever recorded, according to figures compiled by the Metropolitan Life Insurance company. Based on statistics from one-seventh of the total population of the United States and Canada, the death rate in the year mentioned was 5.6 per 100,000 of population. In 1911 the rate was 22.8 per 100,000.

These figures are practically cheering to the American Child Health association, which is engaged in fighting typhoid as well as other diseases which affect children and mothers.

Score Injured at Four Alarm South Boston Blaze— Damage $300,000

Engine Responding to Alarm Crashes Into Wall—Thousands Watch Fire

BOSTON, July 19.—Several firemen were overcome by smoke, a score of others, receiving minor injuries, miraculously escaped death and thousands of dollars damage was caused in a spectacular four-alarm fire which raged furiously for several hours last evening in the six-story brick building, 374-394 Congress street, South Boston.

The first three floors of the building were occupied by the Fairbanks company, scales and the upper three floors are said to be occupied by Thomson & Kelly. The fire was confined to the upper two floors on which there were bales of wool and textiles and supplies stored.

Late last night, Chief John O. Taber estimated the damage by the fire as at least $300,000. He added that the fire undoubtedly started from a man fumigation process, stating that when the firemen first arrived on the scene, they were almost overcome with dense sulphur fumes. He said that the fire department had been notified several days ago that the building would be fumigated.

It was one of the hardest battles the Boston firemen have had recently. The heavy smoke, combined with the fumes of sulphur in the top floor, made the work hazardous, and only the bravery and expertness of the firefighters enabled them to confine the fire to one building.

With the flames continually bursting from the sides of the building and through the roof lighting up the sky so as to be seen for miles around, the fire was spectacular and attracted thousands of people to the scene. Automobiles were lined along the Summer street bridge looking down on the scene of the fire.

The building, which covers practically an entire city block, is located in the center of the so-called high value district, the greatest fire hazard in the city. It is one of the few places where the chief of the fire department responds on the first alarm.

Chief John O. Taber was on duty from the beginning, directing the firemen.

Engine Crashes Into Wall
Excitement was intense in the on-fire section. Several persons watching the fire were slightly bruised in the crowds pushing back and forth endeavoring to gain points of vantage to watch the blaze.

Harry Irons, 32 Bowdoin st., West End, a watchman, received minor injuries in an accident that nearly cost the lives of five firemen on the way to the fire.

Engine 43, located at Andrew square, South Boston, was hurrying to the blaze on the third alarm. As the apparatus was moving along a street nears Richards street, a couple of blocks from the fire, the steering truck turned sharply to the right and crashed head-on into the wall at 189 A street. Irons, the watchman at the building, was pinned against the wall and was hurried to the City hospital.

The firemen were thrown to the street. They were traveling at a high rate of speed, and the impact caused the truck to practically overturn. Lieut. Charles A. Fugersoll was in command, sitting beside the driver, William J. Crockett. Both were badly shaken up. Hoseman Michael J. Kelly is thought to have broken a rib, and was taken to the City hospital. The other hosemen, John Sweeney and John J. Murphy, were also badly shaken up, but they refused medical treatment and assisted in fighting the fire.

The fire was discovered in the fourth floor of the building. The automatic alarm 1235 was sounded at 6.07, and after the firemen had fought unsuccessfully for a time, the bell alarm was sounded at 6.25 from box 7112, at the corner of Congress and A streets. Chief Taber responded and at 6.30 the second alarm was sounded. The third alarm followed at 6.39 and, as the blaze seemed to be getting beyond control, the fourth was sounded at 6.54, bringing apparatus from nearly every section of the city.

Twenty-one Russian girls, two of reputed nobility, plan to come to United States as brides of American relief workers, Moscow dispatch says.

VIENNESE TOO POOR TO PAY DOCTORS' FEES

VIENNA, July 19.—Hundreds of doctors in Vienna are having hard times, these days, keeping themselves and their families alive. The people cannot afford to pay their fees, which are 10,000 crowns, or 15 cents, for a visit. Many physicians' families get meat only once a month, and live chiefly on bread and potatoes.

Ninety per cent of the people in Vienna belong to sick benefit associations, and seek the help of an outside doctor only as a last resource. Furthermore, few foreigners come nowadays to Vienna in quest of medical aid. The home doctors discourage them from taking the journey, representing the local facilities for cures as good as anything to be had in Austria. It is evident the local practitioner does not want fees to slip through his fingers for the benefit of the profession in another country.

GAS COMPANY BOOTLEGGERS' PREY

SALT LAKE CITY, July 19.—The gas company is the latest victim of the bootlegger's art, according to officers of the sheriff's office here, who assert they have uncovered moonshine-making meter tappers.

The officers state the manufacturer of illicit liquor has no desire to avoid an "honest" gas bill, but fears an excessive use of gas will lead to suspicion and investigation. Consequently the last word in 1923 model bootlegging calls for a device that forms an emergency pipe around the meter, giving the operator unlimited gas for his operations, without a foot of gas being registered.

TO ENCIRCLE GLOBE IN 280 HOURS

LISBON, July 19.—Colonel Savadisa Cabral, one of the Portuguese aviators who flew from Lisbon to Rio de Janeiro, referring recently to his project of flying around the world, said his itinerary would be divided into three parts.

The first would be from Lisbon to Japan, 9,570 miles; second, Japan to Newfoundland, 7,850 miles; third, Newfoundland to Lisbon by way of Papei and Punta Delgada, 2,140 miles. On the basis of an average speed of 20 m.p.h., an hour, the aviator would expect to spend 280 hours in the air.

ROSE PARTY PLANS PROGRESSING RAPIDLY

Lowell Lodge 57, B.P.O. Elks, will hold a Rose party at the Lakeview ballroom, Lakeview park, on Monday evening next, July 23rd. Many features are planned and dancing will be enjoyed to the music of Miner-Doyle's orchestra. The entire proceeds of the party are to be turned over to the Christmas Charity fund of the Elks and therefore a large attendance is expected on that night.

How fast Sunday is honored by fresh garments and clean linen

Her rightful pride in their clean linen

SUNDAY MORNING!

What a brightness and happiness it means in the American home!

How fitly the day is honored by fresh garments and clean linen.

Then, if ever, wives and mothers take a rightful pride in the spotless appearance of their husbands and sons—their shirts, collars, cuffs, and handkerchiefs fairly sparkling with whiteness.

These things, once so hard to wash, are now easily kept clean. Rinso, the new kind of soap, gently loosens all the dirt. Soaks the dirt right out.

You put your clothes to rest in the Rinso suds—soak an hour, two hours, over night, if you wish, and then just rinse.

Hold them up to the light and see how white and clean. Only the very dirtiest spots where dirt has been ground in need rubbing. And these you rub but lightly. Sprinkle on a little dry Rinso. The stubborn spots yield at once.

If you boil your white cottons, there is nothing so good as Rinso. Just pour enough into your boiler to get the suds you like. It will dissolve instantly in the boiling water.

For the final washing, whether in set tubs or in a washing machine, Rinso makes the work easier, quicker—your clothes whiter. You need no soap powder—no other soap with Rinso.

Rinso is made by the largest soap-makers in the world—the makers of Lux. For the family wash Rinso is as wonderful as Lux is for fine things.

Get Rinso today. Sold at all grocery and department stores. Comes in two sizes—regular size and the big new package. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

With Rinso—the new kind of soap—soaking takes the place of rubbing.

With peppy Tydol in the tank you are all set to challenge the other 5,999,999 Fords to equal your get-away—power—miles per gallon!

Tydol vaporizes fast. It burns clean and carbon-less on the lean 15 to 1 mixture.

You simply can't afford to buy sluggish gasolines. They waste 30 cents on the dollar. They build up gummy carbon deposits.

Tydol gives your Ford extra speed and power. Tydol keeps Ford upkeep down! Less carbon. Lower oil consumption. Fewer stops for gas—not because the tank holds more Tydol, but because every gallon of fast vaporizing Tydol holds more miles.

To keep your Ford an economy car, run it on Tydol—the economy gasoline. Fill up at the black and orange pumps—everywhere.

SUICIDE VERDICT CHANGED TO MURDER

This hearing, conducted before a coroner's jury by Magistrate J. Johnson at Frederick, Md., resulted in a former verdict of suicide being changed to one of "slain by persons unknown" in the death of Mrs. Grace Simmons Kepner. Inset is Miss Lula V. Ricketts, cashier in a lunch room, who was called as a witness. B. Edward Kepner, the slain woman's husband, testified that Mrs. Kepner had prayed to die.

LORD ALFRED DOUGLAS GIVES AMAZING TESTIMONY IN SUIT AGAINST LONDON PAPER

Defends His Charges That Jews Were Conspiring to Ruin Country, That a Number of That Race Made Cleanup By Manipulating News of Battle of Jutland and That They Were Responsible for Kitchener's Death

LONDON, July 18.—Amazing testimony has been given in court for the first time by Lord Alfred Douglas, who is suing the Morning Post for libel. Lord Douglas, well known as a Douglas on account of his writings, son of the late sporting Marquis of Queensbury, has frequently appeared in the courts in various roles. As editor of the weekly Plain English, he made a series of charges that the Jews were conspiring to ruin the country; that a number of prominent members of that race had made 45,000,000 pounds sterling by manipulating the news of the battle of Jutland; and that they were responsible for Kitchener's death, because he offended them, and the late Sir Ernest Cassell, gave word of truth in the charges against Winston Spencer Churchill, 40,000,000.

Kills Woman, Shoots Husband, Ends Life

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 18.—Paul Cherenko, 28, today shot and killed Mrs. Pauline Justin in her home at Lackawanna and then shot and probably fatally wounded her husband, Sumner Justin. Cherenko then went to his own room in another part of the Justin home and shot himself. He died instantly. The shooting resulted from an argument in which Mrs. Justin was involved.

Mrs. Rizzo, 16, Held For Murder

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., July 18.—Mrs. Mary Rizzo, 16, was held for the grand jury today on charges of first degree murder for shooting her father, Louis Mainente, 38, who died last night in a hospital. Anthony Rizzo, 24, her husband, was arraigned on a charge of possessing a revolver without a permit. He was released in $500 bail. Mrs. Rizzo's defense is that she shot her father to protect her honor.

WALTER HOOVER'S VIEWS ON PROPOSED RACE

NEW YORK, July 18.—Walter Hoover, Duluth, Minn., who lost his title to the Diamond Sculls, when he was eliminated in the first heat at the English Henley regatta because of a broken oar, professed ignorance today of plans for his entry in the national regatta at Baltimore, Aug. 3 and 4, upon his return aboard the Olympic.

The Duluth Boat club, of which Hoover is a member, announced a few days ago that he would compete in the single sculls, opposing Paul Costello, of Philadelphia, the present national titleholder.

Hoover said that he was ready to race Costello, however, at any time on the former's home course at Duluth. "I won the gold challenge cup, emblematic of the sculls sailing title, last year on the Schuylkill river, defeating Costello on his home course," said Hoover, "and I think it's only fair I should name the conditions for the next race for that trophy."

Costello some time ago refused to meet Hoover on the latter's course, insisting that the race be held at Philadelphia.

GROVER C. BERGDOLL MAY GIVE HIMSELF UP

WASHINGTON, July 18.—A possibility that Grover Cleveland Bergdoll may voluntarily return to the United States and serve a prison sentence for evading the draft is seen by some officials here as a result of recent conferences with the Bergdolls' attorneys.

Hope of such a development is based upon a supposition that at least some of the Bergdolls' properties taken over by the government during the war might be returned should the fugitive give himself up. The restoration law passed at the last session of congress contains a clause said to have been inserted to cover the Bergdolls' case in particular, specifying that none of the property held by the alien property custodian shall be turned back to its former owner so long as he is under sentence for violation of the draft law.

FAMOUS CANOE BUILDER DEAD

BOOTHBAY HARBOR, Me., July 18.—William F. Stevens, who was recognized for 15 years as one of the foremost racing canoe builders in the world until he was forced to give up work two years ago, died at his home here yesterday at the age of 73.

He began building sail boats when 16 years of age. A few years later, he became a noted oarsman, winning many sculling contests in this country. Soon afterward he became interested in building racing shells for colleges and individuals. In this business he was associated for some time with Mike Davis of Portland, famous oarsman, and Edward Williams of Lowell, Mass., both shell builders.

HALIFAX WELCOMES GOVERNOR COX

HALIFAX, N. S., July 18.—Halifax today welcomed Governor Cox of Massachusetts, who after calling on Premier Armstrong, was received at city hall.

Mayor Murphy expressed thanks for the aid extended Halifax by the New England commonwealth at the time of the explosion in 1917. Gov. Cox declared that had the situation been reversed, Nova Scotia would have been no less spontaneous and generous.

JAPAN SIDES WITH UNITED STATES

LAUSANNE, July 18.—By the Associated Press.—Japan has definitely sided with the United States in the dispute over maintenance of the open door in the near east. This is what conference circles disclosed today from Ambassador Ochiai's somewhat unexpected statement last night, announcing Japan's decision not to sign the special protocol of the treaty dealing with concessions.

OPTICIAN HELD IN $5000 FOR SENDING BOMBS

BOSTON, July 18.—Louis Mansolillo, Chelsea optician, charged with sending bombs through the mails in connection with three attempts to take the life of Mrs. Grace Lewis of Chelsea, waived examination in federal court today and was held for the grand jury. Mansolillo was subsequently released in $5000 bail. He denied any knowledge of the affair.

A bomb made from a book was exploded in the home of Mrs. Lewis Saturday, injuring her sister-in-law, Mrs. Sadie Bennett. Two other bombs had been sent to Mrs. Lewis in the preceding three months, she said.

Mansolillo, learning that a warrant had been issued for his arrest, gave himself up last night, but declared he was innocent.

TO ELECT SUCCESSOR TO LATE SEN. DILLINGHAM

MONTPELIER, Vt., July 18.—Governor Proctor today called a special senatorial election to be held Nov. 6, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William T. Dillingham, who was 23 years a senator from Vermont. Governor Proctor also ordered a special primary on Oct. 9 to nominate candidates for the senatorial election.

Fred A. Howland, president of the National Life Insurance Co., of Montpelier, who had been prominently mentioned as a possible candidate for succession in his former law partner, the late Senator Dillingham, authorized the statement that he was not a candidate.

BILL JOHNSON BACK FROM EUROPE

NEW YORK, July 18.—William M. Johnson, of San Francisco, winner of the world's tennis championship in the recent tournament at Wimbledon, returned on the Olympic today with a half dozen other American tennis notables who took part in the meet. The party included Francis T. Hunter of New Rochelle, whom Johnson defeated in the final, and five women players: Mrs. Mollie Blumenthal Mallory, New York; Miss Leslie Hangerford, Boston; Martha Bayard, Short Hills, N. J.; Eleanor Sears, Boston; and Katherine Gardner, Boston.

Government Sues to Recover $1,000,000

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Frank T. Sullivan, lawyer, dealer, of Buffalo, N. Y., filed answer in the District of Columbia supreme court today to the suit of the government to recover $1,000,000 alleged to have been made out of the sale of surplus lumber from army cantonments. He is named as one of the defendants in the suit and is also under indictment with John L. Phillips, former republican national committeeman from Georgia, and others on a conspiracy charge. Mr. Sullivan denied having entered into any conspiracy to defraud the United States and asserted he had never induced anyone else to do so.

Booras Bros., Inc., Fails

NEW YORK, July 18.—An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed in federal court today against Booras Bros., Inc., steamship ticket agents and bankers in foreign exchange. The petition was made by three creditors, including a woman who claimed $324 for money loaned. Three brothers, John, Costas and Nicholas, are president, secretary and treasurer of the firm, which was incorporated for $100,000.

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 4

At first the great shell clung to the ground so tight that Jack could hardly budge it. Then, after he had lifted it up a few inches, the water surged underneath it and it rose easily. And, much to Jack's surprise, a fat, funny fellow jumped out from beneath the shell.

"Hurrah!" shouted the little watermite, "I'm free again after being locked away for ages and ages." And then he explained to Jack that the great shell had come slipping through the water a thousand years ago and caught him under it. "And you let me out," he continued.

Jack told the watermite that he was glad he had set him free, and then he asked him if he'd show him the way around the bottom of the sea. "Follow me," shouted the watermite, "and in return for your kindness I will show you all the sights that there are down here." (Continued.)

SO NICK STEPPED UP ON ONE OF THE TOOTSIES' FEET AND SHOOK HANDS

The Twins couldn't help smiling when Mister Sky Bow took them to the place where the Tootsies lived. For the Tootsies were folk with enormous feet, although the rest of them were quite small.

"How do you do?" said one of the Tootsies, holding out his hand to shake hands. "I'm pretty well, thank you," answered Nick. "But I can't shake hands with you because I can't get near enough. Perhaps if you stand sideways I could."

"Oh, that's all right," said the Tootsie. "Step right on."

So Nick stepped up on one of the Tootsie's feet and shook hands. So did Nancy.

"It's too bad!" said Nick. "It certainly is," said Nancy. "What about?" demanded the Tootsie.

"About your feet," answered the Tootsie. "What about my feet?"

"That they're so large," said the Twins.

"Ho, ho, ho! That's a fine joke!" answered the Tootsie.

"Why, just think of it, when we go strolling we can't fall, when we go walking we never get tired, we can't sprain our ankles for our feet never turn over, and our shoes are so big we sleep in them at night. Besides, when we go barefoot in the wet grass, think how good it feels."

"But what if you do when they get cold?" asked Nancy. "There's so much of them to ache."

"All the more to stamp around with," answered the Tootsie. "And think what fun we have sliding."

"No matter what you say they will go the happy side," said Mister Sky Bow. "But come now. We must go to another place."

$4000 LOSS IN NASHUA FIRE

NASHUA, N. H., July 19.—A spectacular fire this evening damaged the water and sawdust conveyors of the Maine Manufacturing Co. The loss is estimated at $4000.

The flames broke out in the sawdust pile which was located in the boiler room ready for burning up by the boilers, and soon spread through the conveyors to the big sawdust bin which was in flames within a few seconds.

Sparks shot high in the air and ignited a wooden water tank at the top of a 70-foot steel tower. There the blaze defied the firemen for over an hour, the flames lighting the surrounding area and again after being subdued momentarily by the showers of water directed at it from a nearby roof.

The contents of the building were for the most part manufactured refrigerators, all of which were slightly damaged by the water. The loss is covered by insurance.

between two buildings, the police and fire departments of a whole city went to work rescuing him.

For 20 hours they worked before they could get the little dog out. And then, only after doing considerable damage to the buildings.

"I'm pretty well, thank you," answered Nick. "But I can't shake hands with you because I can't get near enough. Perhaps if you stand sideways I could."

Safety Lessons FOR The Auto Driver

Prepared by the National Safety Council—Issued by the Massachusetts Safety Council.

No. 12—Autos and Railroads.

In two years 9,101 persons have been killed and 24,208 injured in automobile accidents at railroad grade crossings. A careful crossing campaign to cut down this annual and unnecessary loss of life is being carried on by the railroads and the safety councils in all parts of the country.

One railroad has reported that 95 out of 192 (47 per cent) automobile accidents at railroad crossings in six months resulted from automobiles trying to cross directly in front of an approaching train. The remainder, 54 per cent, resulted from automobiles running into trains not realizing running into automobiles.

One large railroad reports that in one year, over 500 crossing gates lowered to protect the public were run into and broken down by automobiles. On July 15 and 16, 1922, during the first grade crossing campaign, 47 of the 306,306 automobiles crossing tracks at 4,400 crossings on railroads, fifty per cent of the drivers neither looked to the right or left while approaching or passing over the tracks.

The railroads are doing their part to prevent accidents at railroad crossings. They have spent and will continue to spend immense sums of money for track elevation, watchmen, crossing gates, and alarms. It would take $600,000 to eliminate the 232,022 grade level crossings in the United States at the 1921 rate of 45 cents per foot for track elevation in the state of Illinois alone, but with 17,160 crossings still in existence, and because the average cost of eliminating crossings is at least $30,000 each, railroad crossing accidents will continue to occur until the public does its share toward preventing them.

It is advisable never to cross a railroad track in high gear. Many accidents happen because cars become stalled while on the track. It is safer to shift into intermediate or low gear a reasonable distance before crossing a track.

All crossings should be considered as dangerous, whether guarded or not; crossing rails are sometimes out of order; watchmen or gate operators may be off duty.

Be especially careful at crossings where there is more than one track. Do not cross directly behind a train that has just gone by. Another train may be coming in the opposite direction on the next track.

A train running 10 miles an hour stops 50 feet in one second and cannot be stopped in less than about one-quarter of a mile. An automobile running 25 miles an hour can be stopped in 25 feet. Which should stop, look, and listen at railroad crossings, the train or the automobile?

Accidents involving railroad trains and automobiles rarely ever kill or injure anyone on the train—it is usually the people in the automobile who are killed or injured.

KEEP NEGROES IN GEORGIA

Bill to Make it Felony to Solicit Labor in Georgia
For Other States

Present Labor Situation Demands Drastic Action, Says
Author of Bill

ATLANTA, Ga., July 19.—An effort to check the migration of negroes and other farm laborers was given as the reason for the introduction of a bill in the Georgia legislature today, which would make it a felony for any person or concern to solicit labor in Georgia for other states. Punishment would be a prison term of not less than three years, nor more than seven.

"Passage of this bill," one of the authors declared, "will result in checking the exodus of negroes and other farm labor of Georgia to other states. It doesn't allow even licensed labor agents to operate in the state. The present labor situation in Georgia demands drastic legislation and this measure is one which we think best to provide relief."

MARANVILLE IN COURT

and Then Was Told $25
in Newton

BOSTON, July 19.—"Barber" Maranville, Pittsburgh shortstop, spent a busy forenoon among the suburbs of Boston today. He appeared in the Brookline court and was fined $100 for operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor, on May 15.

As soon as Maranville had paid his fine in Brookline, he was arrested by Newton police and taken to the Newton court. There a charge of refusing to stop his automobile when ordered to do so by a traffic officer cost him $25. A second charge of speeding was dropped. These charges grew out of incidents of May 15, the night Maranville was arrested in Brookline.

VALUABLE ETCHINGS OF 14TH CENTURY BURNED

BOSTON, July 19.—A number of etchings dating back to the 14th century and heirlooms of the Di Medici family of Florence, Italy, were destroyed by fire today in the home of Col. Edward H. Eldridge on Beacon Hill. The etchings, framed in rare Florentine glass, were said to be of great value.

The etchings and a large hand-painted Venetian chest, which was also destroyed, were brought from Italy recently by Mrs. Eldridge, who before her marriage was Cressida Di Medici. They had not been unpacked and were stored in the basement. The fire was said to have been caused by contact between a lighted gas lamp and clothing in the laundry of the house.

Lowell Boy Scouts Leave For Two Weeks of Camp Life at Pelham.

TRUCK LOAD OF BOY SCOUT EQUIPMENT, SCOUTS AND EXECUTIVES READY FOR START

One hundred Boy Scouts, representing troops 2, 4, 8, 10, 12, 15, 18, 23, 29, and 30, of Lowell and the Braintree, Chelmsford and Tyngsboro troops, left today for two weeks of camp life at Island Pond, New Hampshire.

The boys gathered at the high school building at a 9 o'clock dress in full uniform and carrying blankets, hats, and camp gear, and shortly before 10 the first machine left carrying a group of boys experienced in trail marking to blaze the road for the other machines to follow. By 1 o'clock the last of the machines had started on the trip.

Scout Executive Edwin J. Mellon is in charge of the campment, with Albert E. Thurston, deputy scout commissioner, in charge of preparations and of the transportation of the boys to camp. Assisting Mr. Mellon at the camp will be the following scout masters: Edwin A. Pearson, troop 1; Fred Giroult, troop 2; Harris Goulet, troop 13; Hugh J. Thomas, troop 19; and the camp chef, William Sargent.

Upon arrival at the camp shortly before noon, the first work undertaken was the preparation of the grounds and the erection of the tents. This work was rapidly done by the older boys who had been in camp before and the entire layout was in readiness when the dinner call was sounded. The afternoon was given over to the setting of the boys in their various tents and the unpacking and storing of luggage and equipment.

The site chosen for the camp is the best that could be found in this vicinity. The land is fairly high and free from mosquitoes and is yet close to Island Pond. There is plenty of fresh drinking water available and the wood for the fires will be gathered from dead branches of trees and the underbrush which is plentiful in the vicinity of the camp.

Under the able supervision of Executive Mellon and his aides, the boys will undergo a thorough course of training in woodcraft, scout lore, nature study, and care of themselves in swimming and boating. Every precaution possible has been taken to safeguard the boys from accident and in case anything should happen, an automobile will be in readiness at all times to transport boys back to the city.

Boy Scout rules will be followed in the camp, the boys rising at the call of the bugle early in the morning and going through physical training exercises before breakfast. The days will be given over to tramps through the woods, with some one of the supervisors along to teach the boys what the marks on trees and tracks on the ground mean. Compass work and signaling will also be taught. The study of birds and animals always proves interesting and this will be thoroughly undertaken at the camp. The scouts will be on the lookout for strange birds or beasts or tracks or marks in the woods and each discovery will be the subject for a lesson study. The building of safe fires and cooking over camp fires will also be a feature in the training.

Scout Executive Mellon was surprised at the large number of applicants for the camp and had to make room for the boys who signed up at the last minute. He wishes to thank those who contributed their machines for the transportation of the scouts and those who willingly gave supplies for the comfort of the boys at the camp.

GIVEN FAREWELL DINNER BY HIS ASSOCIATES

Harold Greene, president of the Junior Young Men's Hebrew association, one of the most prosperous social and athletic organizations in the city, was given a farewell banquet at the Hotel Marlborough last night on the eve of his departure for Michigan, where he intends to enter business.

Mr. Greene was taken entirely by surprise by his associates gathered in his home last night. Practically every member of the organization was present when Max J. Cohen, Esq., as hostmaster, welcomed the guest in appropriate terms and introduced an array of speakers, including William R. Solomon, Henry H. Bloom, Ira Harris, Benjamin Bousmer, Hyman Greenbaum, and others. Entertainment was furnished by Mrs. Mary Cohen, her son, Knoll, Malibor Cohen and Malibor.

As a token of appreciation, the retiring president was presented a handsome silver loving cup by the toastmaster. General dancing was enjoyed in the ball room after the post-prandial addresses.

The success of the affair is due to E. Friedman, J. Cantor, J. Muskin, Mr. Cohen, H. Gersoff, G. Bloom and M. Kleiman.

REQUEST TURNED DOWN OUTING OF THE ANGEL GUARDIAN SODALITY

Public Service Board Denies Petition of Stationary Engineers for Wage Increase

A request for a wage increase for the stationary engineers of the various departments, which came under the jurisdiction of the public service board, was turned down yesterday afternoon's meeting of the board, but after considerable discussion, the petitioners were voted leave to withdraw. The meeting was presided over by Chairman Dennis J. Murphy and the other two members of the board were present.

The first matter taken up was a claim filed by Charles Sanborn of 29 Wentworth street for damage to a copper water boiler, which he claimed, was caused by the shutting off of the city water by employees of the water department. He was asked to present his claim to the city council.

It was voted to direct the Saco-Lowell shops to give better protection to pedestrians in Dutton street by the laying of proper board walks alongside the new building, now being erected.

A request for a 4-hour week with a wage of $14 was presented by the stationary engineers of the various departments in control of the board. It was brought out that the pay of the men, which is now $37 a week, averages as high and even higher than engineers in Cambridge, Worcester, Fall River and Springfield, and accordingly the petitioners were voted leave to withdraw.

A plan for the elimination of the crossing at Merrimack and Dutton streets was filed by the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Co. The plan calls for the laying out of a single curve instead of two and also for the city to defray the cost of tearing up the block paving and concrete base at that spot. The matter was laid on the table in order that the city engineers may submit an estimate of the cost of the work.

Residents of Perry lane sent a petition asking that a surface covering be laid over their thoroughfare and the matter was referred to Mr. Leary for investigation. A request from the Mayhew Garage Co. that the sidewalk in front of the garage building in Central street be lowered, was laid on the table until the next meeting.

Scrap burning of the ash and waste department recommended the purchase of four two-wheel dumpcarts and four two-horse sleds for his department and the request was placed on file. A communication was received from the foreman of the street department to the effect that most of the men had scuffed their intention of taking their annual vacation during the next few months, and it was referred to Leonard Kearney. The board will meet again Saturday noon for the approval of bills.

GAVE LIQUOR TO NAVAL PRISONERS

BOSTON, July 13.—A charge that he gave liquor to naval prisoners, was made against Raymond W. Neumeister, chief commissary steward at the Portsmouth navy yard, who went on trial before a general court-martial at the Boston navy today. It was alleged that Neumeister knowingly and wilfully had liquor in his possession and that he distributed it among naval prisoners.

Battled His Way to Prisoner's Rescue as Mob Prepared to Lynch Him

Crowd Attacked Negro Accused of Attempting to
Assault White Girl

NEW YORK, July 19.—While an infuriated mob looked along Seventh avenue near 37th street, for a lamppost on which to lynch James Guillotte, a negro porter, a policeman last night battled his way to the prisoner's rescue and locked him in a garage for safe-keeping.

The negro was charged with attempting to assault an 11-year-old white girl, whom he had dragged into a dark doorway. A crowd of screaming women and shouting men attacked him.

He was kicked and beaten, and with a clothesline tied in a hangman's knot about his neck, was being led on a search for a stringing-up place when the patrolman charged with gun and night stick.

The officer obtained possession of Guillotte and hauled him to the garage, shaking off the men and women who continued assailing both rescuer and rescued. A patrol wagon well armed, was backed into the refuge while patrolmen guarded the doors, and the negro hustled off to jail.

GETTING WEIGHED GREAT SUMMER SPORT

That Lowell folks weigh themselves often is evidenced by the large collection of pennies periodically taken out of the weighing machines at the Comfort station in Bridge and Paige streets. Today no less than 6000 "coppers" were taken from the machines by N. C. Walker, owner of the weighing apparatus.

The cash contents of the machines are removed once a month, the money is brought into the office of the superintendent of buildings, where it is counted and distributed, a portion to the owner and the remainder to the city. Last month the two machines brought in $37.18 as against $52.46 in May. But this month is the largest in the year, exceeding last month's receipts by $2.82. Included in the cash removed from the box were three nickels and four dimes as well as numerous foreign coins.

British Cabinet Discusses Note

LONDON, July 19.—(By the Associated Press) The British cabinet held a protracted session this morning at which the proposed reparations documents formed the main topic of discussion. Up to the early afternoon it was still uncertain as to whether the cabinet would draft a reply to Germany and the accompanying note would be forwarded to the other governments including the United States, tonight.

It is recognized that these state papers may mark a turning point in Great Britain's relations to her neighbors. Therefore, infinite care is being bestowed on their preparation by Lord Curzon, the foreign secretary, and his associates.

City Teaching Scores of Boys and Girls Art of Swimming at So. Common Pool

SWIMMING INSTRUCTOR LEO WHOLEY AND GROUP OF YOUNGSTERS IN THE POOL

For the first time in the history of our park system, young children are being taught to swim by a competent instructor where there is absolutely no danger. It has already proved to be one of the most popular features of the summer playground program.

Supt. Kernan is very much satisfied with the success of this departure and states that in a little over a week, about 100 boys who could not swim a stroke now are able to swim fairly well and 19 boys yesterday gave an exhibition in the pool on the South common, where the instruction is given, that proved them to be competent swimmers. Mr. Kernan believes in making every boy his own life-saver by teaching him to be an expert swimmer.

This paper for years has advocated instruction in swimming in connection with the playgrounds and this year Mr. Kernan states that he has adopted The Sun's suggestion and it is proving a complete success. He has selected the pool on the South common for the purpose and when it is filled to the brim it is deep enough at least for the younger boys to swim with perfect ease. When they know that at any time they can strike the bottom, they

LT. MAUGHAN IN SECOND ATTEMPT TO CROSS CONTINENT BETWEEN DAWN AND DUSK

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., July 19.—(By the Associated Press) Carrying a bundle of today's New York morning newspapers which he hopes to sell in San Francisco this evening, Lieut. Russell T. Maughan, army aviator, landed at St. Joseph, Mo., at 11:25 a. m. central standard time, thus completing the second leg of his continental hop.

He landed smoothly and two mechanics who have been in St. Joseph for three weeks, at once went over the plane.

The lieutenant traveled 160 miles an hour in the jump from Dayton to this city, a distance of 560 miles.

Maughan's machine was in fine shape, his mechanics said after an inspection.

Maughan declared that he had experienced no trouble and that he is now confident that he can make up time so as to reach San Francisco before sundown.

St. Joseph, 1140 miles west of New York, brought the aviator almost half way across the continent in his dawn to dusk effort.

Lieut. Maughan's next scheduled stop is Cheyenne, Wyo., 530 miles.

which he expects to negotiate in about three hours and twenty minutes.

Lieut. Maughan departed from St. Joseph at 12:03 p. m. central time.

Dayton First Stop

DAYTON, Ohio, July 19.—Lieut. Maughan, flying from coast to coast between dawn and dusk, arrived here at 8:35 a. m. eastern standard time.

Lieut. Maughan left Dayton at 8:33 a. m. eastern standard time.

While here, Maughan's plane was refueled and examined thoroughly, and the aviator ate breakfast. When he took the air, he circled the field once for altitude, and headed south-west for St. Joseph, Mo.

Start of Flight

MITCHELL FIELD, N. Y., July 19.—(By the Associated Press) Lieutenant Russell T. Maughan took off here at 4:05 o'clock this morning, eastern standard time, on the first leg of his second attempt to fly from coast to coast between dawn and dusk. He pointed his plane toward Dayton, Ohio, where he intends to make his first stop.

The plane left the ground eight minutes and four seconds later than the take off by Lieutenant Maughan on his previous dawn to dusk flight.

Lieutenant Maughan's Sherry weather expert from Washington, declared the weather to be almost ideal for flying conditions, saying the light winds would be to the aviator's advantage.

At the 3000 foot level, he said there was a 10 miles an hour easterly wind, while at 6000 feet a northeast wind was blowing at eight miles an hour. There was a slight fog over the field but Maughan had no difficulty in making his getaway. Lieutenant Sherry said he also would encounter a light fog over the Alleghenies in Penna.

Lunch Room Clerk Disappears Leaving Death Note and Letters Behind

Archie W. Joyce, a cook employed at the Waldorf restaurant on Merrimack street, has been missing since yesterday morning. He left a note in his room at 213 Appleton street to the effect that he was going to end his life, and some foundation is given this because Joyce took with him a 15-caliber revolver.

Joyce also left two letters in his room, and asked the landlord to mail them if he did not return last night. One of the letters was addressed to a girl, but the police are withholding her name.

The missing man, who was last seen on Central street about 10 o'clock yesterday morning, is 30 years of age, five feet, four inches in height, light complexioned and has light hair. He wore a gray coat, dark trousers and a blue shirt.

Lowell's Traffic Problems Grow More Vexing From Day to Day

With thousands of motor cars passing through the main thoroughfares of the city daily, Lowell's traffic problems have assumed metropolitan proportions, according to Supervisor Edward J. Connors. Although every effort is being made to alleviate the increased congestion with additional "no parking" signs in the central business districts of the city, the task is a herculean one and can only reach successful accomplishment with the co-operation of the owners and operators of motor vehicles.

About two months ago, Supervisor Connors and Officer Edward Managan submitted a detailed report of local traffic conditions to Supt. Atkinson at the latter's request, outlining at some length the legalized parking areas in the downtown sections of the city. For a time the suggestions were carried out with marked success, but were soon discarded and today traffic officers are kept on the jump warning delinquents of traffic law violations.

In view of the apparent great need of personal assistance, the list of parking spaces and the accommodations, printed some time ago in The Sun, warrants repetition: Brookings street, French street, Kirk street, the farther end of John street, the lower end of Dutton street, Brown street, all centrally located and capable of accommodating between 750 and 1000 cars. If such cities as Lynn, Fall

Lawrence Operators First to Vote Acceptance of Plan to Bring Settlement

Former Employees Will Be Required to Make Individual Application

LYNN, July 19.—The Lynn local union of telephone operators voted this afternoon to declare the strike, in effect since June 26, off at 3 o'clock, and to return to work under certain conditions.

It was stipulated that the union should be recognized insofar as the right of the union adjustment board to sit on all grievances between employees and company is concerned. A second stipulation was that no individual striker applying for a position he employed, but that group applications for re-employment be filed through the union adjustment board.

It was said that all but 75 of the 215 positions in the local exchange had been filled since the strike began.

R. I. Strikers Refuse to Accept

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 19.—The striking telephone operators rom Providence, R. I., over the state except from Newport, voted here today not to go back to work under the present offer made by the telephone company. The vote is said to have been nearly unanimous.

Strike Ends in Lawrence

LAWRENCE, July 19.—The Lawrence telephone operators who have been on strike since June 26, voted today to end the strike at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

A committee was appointed to confer with Miss Nellie J. Mahoney, chief operator, relative to re-employment of the strikers.

It was stated that the vote to end the strike was in accordance with a vote taken by representatives of union members from several cities at a meeting which was held in Boston last night.

Manager Fred G. Cheney of the local exchange said that approximately 35 of the 126 positions on the local switchboard have been filled and that in accordance with the promise of the company the

SKIPPER SHANGHAIED 25 MILES AT SEA

BOSTON, July 19.—Capt. Frederick Hymen, the negro skipper of the British fishing schooner, Kaduskak, seized at sea Tuesday by the United States coast guard cutter, Ossipee, pleaded not guilty in the federal court here yesterday, to the charge of participation in an alleged run-running conspiracy entered at Bar Harbor, Me., last September. He was held in bail of $3000 for a hearing on Aug. 15.

William H. Lewis, an attorney retained by the negro skipper when he was brought ashore, declared that his client had been "shanghaied" far at sea in violation of the laws of civilized nations. There was speculation here as to the possible attitude of the British government toward the arrest of Hymen and his vessel as the latter is said to have been in the harbor when taken in tow by the Ossipee. The arrest was made on the recommendation of District Attorney Frederick H. Dyer, of Portland, to the Ossipee commander's superior officer, after a wireless message from the Ossipee that the Kaduskak was being sighted eight miles off shore. Mr. Dyer, it is expected, will assist in the prosecution of Hymen.

Capt. Hymen readily admitted yesterday that he had on the Kaduskak about 1500 cases of whiskey and gin, consigned from Trinidad to St. Pierre, Minn., and declared he had nothing to conceal. He is said to be a college graduate and to have been born in Scotland.

"Of course, I wouldn't do anything when the Ossipee's commander told me I was under arrest," he remarked, "but if we had had guns like the Ossipee's, I would not have come without a fight."

A well known Boston lawyer likened the Kaduskak's seizure to the historic Mason and Swiftell affair which nearly provoked a war with England during the Civil war and declared that the government officials were in the wrong in arresting the Kaduskak and its skipper on the high seas.

MAKE RECORD SEIZURE IN TEWKSBURY

Federal officers last night made a seizure of the biggest moonshine plant ever detected in the vicinity of Lowell. The raid was made at the farm of Frank E. Smith, in Walnut street in South Tewksbury and Smith and John Morrone of Boston, were arrested and held in $500 each for their appearance before Judge United States Commissioner Thorne in Boston.

Three stills, each with a capacity of 200 gallons were found, together with 100 gallons of moonshine, three hundred pounds of yeast, 700 pounds of sugar, 1000 gallons of mash, several kerosene stoves and 100 gallons of kerosene.

The distilling plant occupied the entire rear part of the first floor. A new gasoline pump connected to a large tank supplied the stills with water and also circulated the water through condensing coils.

The raid was made by Federal Officers Walter Sullivan and John Hall, with the assistance of two other officers from Boston.

MANY ATTEND FUNERAL OF JAMES W. M'KENNA

A solemn high mass of requiem, attended by an overflow congregation of relatives and friends, two open branches of flowers, an unusually long procession of carriages, and the suspension of business in Centralville for two hours, marked the funeral ceremonies this morning of James William McKenna, for twenty years a prominent figure in the undertaking business in this city.

The funeral took place at 9 o'clock from the McKenna home, 757 Bridge street, the cortege proceeding to St. Michael's church, where a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated at 10 o'clock by Rev. James F. Lynch, assisted by Rev. Thomas J. Heagney, as deacon, and Rev. Wm. J. Kivney, O.M.I., of the Sacred Heart church as sub-deacon. Rev. Joseph A. Curtin of St. Patrick's church was master of ceremonies, while seated in the sanctuary during the mass were the following: Rev. John J. Shaw, pastor of St. Michael's; Rev. Arthur P. Connors, O.M.I., of Buffalo, N. Y.; Rev. Daniel F. Gorman of St. Catherine's church, Charlestown; Rev. Charles J. Sullivan, D.D., of St. Andrew's, North Billerica; Rev. Michael J. Griffin, pastor of St. Michael's, Collierville; and Rev. Philip J. Lee of Turner's Falls, Mass.

The choir, under the direction of Mr. James A. Murphy, rendered Terry's requiem mass, "Pie Jesu" being sung by Mrs. J. A. Murphy; "O Meritum Passionis" by Mr. James S. King; the solos in the libera, by Mr. Murphy; the "De Profundis" by Mr. Fred O'Donnell, and the solos in the mass by Miss Margaret Griffin and Mrs. Margaret McDonough McGuire. Mrs. Ella Reilly Tope was the organist.

Among the many delegations represented was a group of Sisters of Notre Dame of St. Patrick's parish, and the following society delegates: Bishop Dolan Assembly, Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus, Charles J. Landers, D.D.S.R.; John H. McNabb, P.O.E.; William H. Gallagher, P.O.E.; and John T. Burns, while Lowell council was represented by Grand Knight John E. Hart, John J. Lane, Ambrose Creamer, Martin P. Conley, Leo Pope and William Hunt. Other delegations were: Lowell lodge of Elks; Hon. John T. Sparks, Thomas A. Golden, Joseph Gilley, Edward P. Morris and John Downing, Loyal Order of Moose; Elmer G. Wiley, director; Thomas M. Keegan, secretary; Ernest P. Parsons, D.D.S.; Patrick E. Mahan, trustee; William T. Harney and William A. Mack, Massachusetts Undertakers' Association; Geo. W. Underly, Wm. H. Saunders, Amadeo Archambault, Thos. J. O'Donnell, John L. McDonough, Jas. Albert, Branch O'Neill Crawley, Irish National Foresters; Patrick Linehan, P.O.R.; Patrick F. Sexton, U.C.R.; Michael Nugent and Patrick Nevin, General Organizers Joseph L. Handley of Boston, representing the auxiliary committee of the city, was also with this delegation. Loyal Arrangements: De Hugh Walker, P.R.; Joseph H. Gormley, P.R.; Charles H. O'Donnell, P.R.; Neil A. Clark, P.R.; John W. Shuckey and Regent James Tuttle.

The honorary pall bearers were James A. Murphy, George M. Harrigan, Edward H. Foye, Judge Thos. J. Enright, Hugh Maguire and James H. Lawler, while the active bearers were: Harry Clifford, William J. Crawley, Edward J. Ford, William J. McCloskey, William H. Noonan and Thomas Nevin. The ushers at the house and church were Charles P. Foley, Francis Duffy and Edward J. Flattery, Jr.

As the body was taken from the church the various delegations formed a grand outside and made passage for the casket. Burial was in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery, where the committal prayers were read by Rev. Fr. Lynch, Rev. Daniel F. Gorman, Charlestown; Rev. Philip Lee, Turner's Falls; Rev. Charles Sullivan, D.D.; Rev. William Kivney, O.M.I., and Rev. Arthur Connors, O.M.I., Buffalo.

PARADE ON LABOR DAY NOT THOUGHT LIKELY

There probably will be no parade in Lowell on Labor day. This is not official, but it is believed that the members of the Trades and Labor Council, who will meet this evening to take action on the matter will vote against holding a street celebration. The reason given is that the cost of uniforms for the different crafts is exorbitant.

The matter of observing Labor day with a street parade has been under discussion by the local union for several weeks and a short time ago the different unions were asked to take a vote as to whether or not they favored a parade and it was learned this morning that a majority voted against it. The delegates will report at the Trades and Labor council meeting tonight and a final vote on the matter will be taken by the council.

VACANCIES AT HOME WILL GIVE DRACUT REAL FIRE PROTECTION

Although usually filled to its capacity, there are at present a few vacancies at the Working Girls' home in Cross street, due to the summer months when girls are away on their vacation, and also to the lack of employment. There are 56 girls at the home now, 47 of whom are permanent boarders, the remainder being day patrons who go to the home for their meals. Although the sleeping accommodations are limited, the Sisters will be glad to have young girls as day patrons, and will do their utmost to satisfy the applicants.

The home established in 1898, is under the direction of the Franciscan Sisters, who take great interest in the welfare of girls in their charge. Since the death of Rev. Mother Lophra, superior, the vacancy has not been filled, but a new superior is expected early in August.

The new triple combination White truck of the Dracut fire department was given a test yesterday afternoon in the presence of underwriters, and was apparently satisfactory. The test was held for three hours. Lunch was served those in attendance at the Navy Yard hose house.

The triple combination consists of hose, chemical and a pump besides two ladders. The ladders are one of the 40-foot extension type and 20-foot roof ladder. The chemical tanks hold 40 gallons of chemicals, while 200 feet of hose is attached to it. After the truck reaches a fire, the driver, by merely pressing a lever, disconnects the rear end of the machine and thus connects the pump to the engine. Speeds are then shifted as in any machine to regulate the speed of the pump. If there isn't any hydrant near the fire a 1½-inch tube is dropped into a pond for example, and then water is drawn by way of the truck into numerous 2½-inch hose-lines. Water can be pumped this way as fast as 600 gallons per minute. In part of the town where water pressure is low the pump can be connected to the hydrant and thus the hose lines will receive higher pressure. The engine is a 75-horse-power one, with 16 valves and four cylinders.

are: Miss Evelyn Wallace, Merrill Bronson and Peter Saccheri of this city and Edward Hatfield of Bristol, Conn. All will recover. George Garne of Medford, Mass., who inhaled smoke was discharged.

TWO DIE IN HOTEL FIRE AT WATERBURY, CONN.

WATERBURY, Conn., July 19.—A second death was averted today as the result of last night's fire which destroyed the Hodson's hotel in Exchange place.

The victim was Julian Kramer of Norwich, Conn. The first to die in the fire is supposed to be Alex. O'Connell of New York and Waterbury. Positive identification is lacking.

SEC. OF LABOR DAVIS IN BERLIN

BERLIN, July 19.—(By the Associated Press)—James J. Davis, the American secretary of labor, who is touring Europe and the Orient to study world emigration problems at first hand, returned to Berlin today from Warsaw and prepared to leave immediately for Prague and Vienna.

He later will spend several days in the Ruhr visiting the mines, smelters and factories as he is particularly interested in the economic aspects of the Ruhr situation.

LADY FRANKLIN COUNCIL

Lady Franklin council, Sons and Daughters of Liberty, will hold a basket picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Grogins, Chelmsford, on Saturday, July 21. This date is also the fortieth wedding anniversary of the hosts and they are anxious to have a large number of their friends present at the picnic.

Members attending the picnic should take the Westford street car and get off at the end of the line. Automobiles will take them from there to the house.

WELL KNOWN MAN SAYS NOTHING TO BEAT IT

Was Rundown — Suffered From Indigestion, Acid Risings, Bad Kidneys—Dreco Restores Him to Health.

It is generally acknowledged that stomach trouble is one of the commonest ailments of the body today and one which leads to more serious complications more often than anything else. Yet one which is passed over lightly and given very little heed. Here is a man who talks of his experience for the benefit of others.

Mr. John H. O'Brien, an old-time ball player, well known throughout New England, living at the Hotel Annex, Lowell, says:

"There is nothing to beat good health. It is a most prized possession. For years I suffered all agony allotted to any one person. Food, the thought of which nauseated me, laid in my stomach like lead. After every meal I would suffer from indigestion pains. Gas would bloat me and rise up, burning my insides, causing me to belch.

"My kidneys were so bad that I could not enjoy a good night's sleep. I got up every morning tired. Had none of the

WHITE WOMEN BLAME K. K. K. FOR FLOGGING

LUMBERTON, N. C., July 19.—The grand kliff of the K. K. K. in North Carolina and the head of the Fairmont klavern were under subpoena today to produce membership records of the Fairmont organization at the trial here of three men on charges growing out of the flogging of two white women near Princetonville, last April.

Developments drawing the Klan into the trial proceedings came last night after two of the men on trial, Johnson Hedgcock and Julie Brogden, in protesting their ignorance of any connection with the floggings, had denied on the stand that they were members of the Klan. State counsel, in requesting issuance of the subpoenas on the Klan officials, said they wanted to determine whether Mike Lawson, chief of police at Fairmont, who is the other defendant, was a member of the organization.

Mrs. Mary Watson, who is a sister of Hedgcock and Mrs. Mattie Purvis, the victims of the alleged floggings, have testified that all three of the accused men were members of a robed band which entered their homes, took them to a nearby negro church and whipped them.

POLICEMAN KILLED BY AUTO THIEF

SCARSDALE, N. Y., July 19.—Police Sergeant John J. Harrison, was shot and killed by an automobile thief near police headquarters today.

Harrison had gone to investigate a report that a man was stealing an automobile. An hour later, a citizen telephoned the station that Harrison was lying in the street, dead.

INQUESTS HELD ON TWO LOCAL DEATHS

Inquests were held today before Associate Justice Edward Fisher in district court of the tragic death of Jose Silva and George Bushy. The Silva had died as the result of injuries sustained in being struck by an auto driven by Manuel Romalho on Central street on July 8. Bushy was employed as a fireman by the New England Telephone and Telegraph Co. and was electrocuted while working on a pole on Gorham street on the morning of June 26.

CARDINAL TO DEDICATE NEW JUNIORATE

The new Juniorate of the Naxerian Brothers at Oak Hill, Peabody, which several Lowell boys will enter this fall, will be formally dedicated by His Eminence, William Cardinal O'Connell, on Sunday afternoon, August 5. The cardinal will be assisted by the pastors and other clergy from the parishes where the brothers are engaged in school work. St. Patrick's parish in Lowell will be represented. Rev. Brother Edmund, C.F.X., for 10 years superior of St. Patrick's Boys school in this city, is in charge of the new Juniorate. As already announced, the Juniorate is intended for a house of study for boys and young men who have not yet completed their course of study in high school, and who have the intention of consecrating themselves to the cause of Christian education in the Naxerian order. The location in Peabody gives the aspirants an excellent opportunity to pursue their studies under the most favorable conditions. The property is extensive, the buildings are numerous and adequate to provide for sixty or more aspirants. The present enrollment is made up of boys and young men from various sections of the country. A large percentage, however, comes from East Boston, Lawrence, Lowell, Somerville and Worcester. For admittance to the Juniorate, the requirements must necessarily be strict. The age limit is between fourteen and eighteen years.

Earl of Northesk Not to Wed Today

CHICAGO, July 19.—Jessica Brown, former Follies star, and the Earl of Northesk, refused a marriage license in New York on June 5 on the grounds that the former's divorce here was illegal, have been here since Monday and, although they have obtained legal information that there is no bar to their marriage here, deny they intend to be married today.

Price of Gasoline to Drop To Ten Cents

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 19.—Predictions that the price of gasoline, reduced to 12c a gallon here yesterday by independent dealers, would fall to 10c or less within a day or two, were heard today. The large companies still are selling at 19c. The smaller ones, in a rate war among themselves, have reduced it to 12c. Rumors are afloat that the large companies are considering a plan to fix a price so low that the independents cannot meet it.

France's Wheat Crop Sufficient

PARIS, July 19.—(By the Associated Press)—For the first time in many years, France will not be obliged to import wheat after August, as its crop of the grain, harvesting of which is now beginning, is much larger than expected. This crop situation is expected to increase the value of the franc.

An aspirant must have completed the grammar school course, be healthy in mind and body, have a cheerful disposition, possess ordinary ability to pursue his studies, be willing to obey and show by his actions that he has a love for all things which help to make good religious.

Rev. Bro. Edmund is prepared to furnish all information. His address is Oak Hill, Andover street, Peabody.

with the rail mills for the curved track and switches for this corner and that they should be here inside of three or four weeks. As soon as the rail is received it will be only a matter of a week before the new curve will be laid and in operation.

The cross-over and curve as now constructed is a source of danger and many accidents have been narrowly averted there by the quick action of car operators and automobilists. Electric cars going up Merrimack street bound for Broadway and the Highways cross from the right-hand track to the left-hand track at a point in front of the Y.M.C.A., where the street is fairly narrow and then swing sharply into Dutton street, leaving only a clearance of a foot or so from the sidewalk. Many machines have been caught both at the corner and where the cars swing from Merrimack street and, with the great increase of automobile traffic in the past year, members of the public service board and many citizens have considered this situation too dangerous to be left as it is. The board notified Manager McCormick of its decision in this matter and he agreed with them that the corner should be made double-tracked to do away with the cross-over, and immediately ordered the material for this work.

Ten Injured in Bloody Street Battle

VERA CRUZ, July 19.—Ten persons, including two policemen, were wounded in a bloody street battle between police and members of the red union of revolutionary tenants who refused to pay rent. The trouble had its inception partly in an attempt by the tenants to haul down the flag of the republic which a landlord had hoisted over his building. When the police started to take the troublemakers to jail, the tenants left behind began to shoot and throw stones, bringing down three of the police from their horses. The population is in a state of great excitement.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

ITALO THEATRE
 "Drass" Charles G. Norris' story of marriage and divorce, opens a three day engagement at the Italio today. It is the bitter story of a marriage that glittered like gold, but proved to be a miserable counterfeit—"Drass." The cast in "Drass" is one of the finest ever assembled, the important parts being played by such noted screen stars as Monte Blue, Marie Prevost, Frank Keenan, Irene Rich, Miss Dupont and Pat O'Malley.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE
 Betty Compton and Richard Dix are giving a great success in "The Woman With Four Faces," an intriguing crook story, which features the current program at the Merrimack Square theatre. Lowell's most comfortable amusement house, "Her Fatal Millions," with Viola Dana, is the second feature for the week-end.

THIS STRAND

"The Woman In Chains," with Mrs. Randolph Valentino starring, assisted by E. K. Lincoln, Martha Mansfield and others of recognized screen note, will open a three days' engagement today at The Strand, and if the advance notices of it are to be taken as an indication of its worth, then the patrons of Lowell and vicinity have a real motion picture in store for them. The story has to do with the experiences of a young wife who was unfortunate to have married a man who literally placed her in chains. Her adventures and the ultimate result are graphically and interestingly developed during the progress of the story and closing climax. Mrs. Valentino reflects exceptional power and dramatic ability. Herbert Lincoln and Alice Lake are appearing in "Nobody's Bride," a story of the underworld. None of the many screen stars can portray the characters of this particular type as well as Lincoln can, while Miss Lake is always entertaining and interesting in the portrayal of the young woman of experience. There is a good comedy and a weakly, as well as excellent musical numbers by Al Forest and Leo Huttoncourt.

NEW LAW TO PERMIT CITIES TO AID ST. RY.

BOSTON, July 19.—The City of Lowell is allowed under a new law, which went into effect this week, to make contributions toward the cost of street railway service in that city, if such a step is necessary in order to avoid a reduction or discontinuance of street car service.

The new law does not apply to the Boston Elevated Railway Co. or to the City of Boston, but affects cities in the Eastern Massachusetts street railway system and all other cities in the state.

The act was recommended by the department of public utilities. It is section 102 of chapter 161 of the General Laws, and reads as follows:

"Any city, except Boston, by vote of its city council, and any town by majority of voters thereof present and voting thereon at a town meeting, may from time to time, for the purpose of avoiding a reduction or discontinuance of service, enter into an agreement with a street railway company operating a street railway therein to pay any part or all of any excess of the cost of service on the lines of the company operated in such city or town above the amount of the receipts from such lines arising from the fares and fares in effect thereon during the period covered by such agreement; provided that no contribution under said agreement shall in any year exceed in such city the sum of $1,000 or in such town the sum of $500 for each $1,000 of the assessed valuation of the year unless the payment of any such excess is first approved by the department."

"The department (of public utilities) shall upon application of any city or town appearing as aforesaid, determine any question relating to the character or extent of the service rendered or facilities furnished in such city or town in pursuance of said agreement. In the event of differences arising between the street railway company and such city or town in relation thereto, any such city or town may raise by taxation such amounts as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section."

STREET RAILWAY TO RUN BUS LINES

Beginning next Sunday, the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Co. will operate bus lines between Rillerica and Woburn, Woburn and Reading, Reading and Wakefield, Wakefield and North Andover, and Woburn and Wilmington. Permission, as is necessary under a recent state law, has been granted the company in all of these cities and towns.

The buses will be operated as one-man cars. The driver will collect the fares in addition to running the bus and employes on the bus lines will rank the same as operators on the street cars.

One line is already in operation between Reading and Stoneham and the inauguration of service on the other five lines next Sunday marks the first major move of the street railway company to recover traffic lost when a great many of the non-paying car lines were discontinued. The bus lines taken over by the company were formerly owned by the Lowell Bus Line Co.

WOMAN FOUND GUILTY OF MURDER OF SON

MASON, Mich., July 19.—Mrs. Emma Kopple, 35-year-old Lansing woman, yesterday afternoon was found guilty of the murder of her son, Harry Bert, by a jury in circuit court here. The boy died of poisoning May 13. It was charged that Mrs. Kopple conspired with James Shannon, a farmer, at her home, to kill the boy in order to collect $1250 insurance money on the boy's life.

The jury, which deliberated 50 minutes before reaching a verdict, was composed of 10 men and two women. In charging the jury, as to its duty, Judge Leland W. Carr said that inasmuch as only circumstantial evidence was involved in the case there could be but one of two verdicts returned—guilty or not guilty.

Immediately upon receiving the verdict Judge Carr sentenced Mrs. Kopple to life imprisonment at hard labor. After sentence had been pronounced, Mrs. Kopple continued to declare her innocence.

O'DONNELL MACHINE WRECKED IN CRASH

Hon. and Mrs. James E. O'Donnell had a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday when their latest coupe was involved in a head-on collision with a Dodge truck, owned by the Rillerica and Lowell Laundry Co. and operated by William E. Gannon. The latter and his companion, Eugene E. Sullivan, son of the owner of the truck, escaped injury, while Mr. and Mrs. O'Donnell suffered fright cuts from flying glass. Both machines were badly damaged.

LOWELL MAYOR AMONG GUESTS AT DEVENS

CAMP DEVENS, July 19.—A flood of police for national defense was advertised by Mayor James M. Curley at a luncheon at the hostess house yesterday before a gathering of about thirty mayors and members of the city councils of three cities who were the guests of Brig-Gen. Malvern H. Barnum. He said after touching lightly on the recent election in Minnesota, that we should adopt a national non-partisan planning board of men of the type of John W. Weeks, secretary of war, whom he characterized as a capable man and a fearless soldier. With such an organization, he said, we could get positive in an emergency and need have no fear even if someone of the radical type should get a seat in the government at the national capital.

The Boston mayor said he believed thoroughly in the citizens' Military Training camp and urged all present to send candidates for the one month's free training. There is no better form of work or recreation for the development of the youngster. Thirty-five young men, he said, had become enrolled for the C.M.T.C. at his instigation.

General Barnum then introduced Maj. Gen. Edward L. Logan, commander of the 26th Division, who spoke of the splendid attitude of the regular army toward training period and he also lauded the C.M.T.C. saying that every company and separate unit under his command is sending some boy from their home town to receive the training during the month of August.

Yesterday was Mayor's day and nine acceptances were received by Gen. Barnum but last minute regrets were received from several of them. Among the chief executives of the cities at the luncheon were, besides Mayor Curley, Mayor Edward W. Quinn of Canton, Mayor John J. Donovan of Lowell. Following luncheon the party was entertained at the division headquarters and then left to see the units from their respective cities at their work and at 5 o'clock the party witnessed evening parade and a review tendered to the party by the 101st Engineers which arrived in camp yesterday.

"HIRAM'S" HOME COMING

Another memorable date, July 23rd, will be added to the present month—the date when United States Senator Hiram Johnson of California will return from Europe and be the honored guest in a grand reception in New York.

It will be recalled that Hiram Johnson in 1912 was the Bull Moose candidate for vice-president on the ticket headed by the late Col. Roosevelt. He will be recalled as "Hiram the Progressive"; Hiram of the storm country; the man of thunder, who sets his foot upon the sea and rides upon the storm. Twelve years have passed since then, and in all the transformations wrought by the hand of time during that period, that of Hiram Johnson is perhaps the greatest. But 12 years ago he would have been received by a committee and a throng of grateful citizens composed of "trust-busters" advocates of "social justice" crying out against the interests, "predatory wealth," fossilized judges, molly-coddles, and similar entities. Now, however, the complexion of the senator's supporters has been radically changed even as has been the senator himself. Among the committee that will have charge of the reception to the senator are some of the leading bankers, traders, and publicists of the country. Heading the list is Otto H. Kahn, then comes Frank A. Munsey of the Munsey Trust company, Charles M. Schwab, chairman of the board of directors of the Bethlehem Steel corporation; Clarence H. Mackay of the Postal Cable and Telegraph company, together with many other representatives of big business and high finance.

What, it may be asked, is the purpose of this reception to the western senator and what are the reasons for holding it in New York? There are various reasons, no doubt; but the chief and only one of general interest to the public is to give a strong initial impetus to the movement to make Senator Johnson the successor of Warren G. Harding in the White House. True, the undertaking is one of rather large proportions; but the men at the head are apparently convinced that with Senator Johnson they can brush aside not only Mr. Harding, but also Henry Ford, whose name haunts New York financiers as a veritable nightmare. Let us calmly await the demonstration in which Senator Johnson will project his sombrero into the political arena.

It seems that the great need of the hour is respect for the law and the constitution. People may differ upon matters of politics such as the tariff, the bonus and the ship subsidy bill; but on questions affecting our form of government and the supremacy of law, there should be no difference and there can be no difference among true Americans.

During the war the Germans were held up to public obloquy in the allied countries, but he it said of the German subjects, that they were true to their country and their flag, and ready at all times to give their lives for the fatherland. They had been trained in the school of loyalty and discipline from childhood and when the test came, they willingly made every sacrifice demanded of them by their government. This spirit of sacrifice and loyalty is needed in this country today—needed to bring together all the forces of patriotism and opposition to the type of radicalism represented by Senator L. Follette, the I.W.W., the socialists and the various items that, taken together, constitute a menace to free government in this country. The present is a time when true statesmen are needed to marshal the political forces of the country in support of the constitution; to stand for the rights of the people as guaranteed by that constitution and in opposition to the elements that would tear down the structure of popular freedom which is enjoyed to a greater extent in this country than anywhere else in the world.

PROFITEERING DUTIES

President Harding's promise to "shorten the bridge between producer and consumer and to reduce the toll that must be paid for passing over it" can best be fulfilled by recommending to Congress the repeal of the decrease of many of the profiteering duties imposed by the Fordney-McCumber tariff law. This device for rewarding the individuals and interests that contribute to the political funds of the republican party is the chief opportunity and protection of those whom the president describes as "those who are disposed to take tolls from both the consumer and the producing public." The present tax of 30 cents a pound on raw wool provides a fine illustration of the way in which the republican tariff operates to victimize the consumer as well as the ultimate producer. On every one of the four pounds of wool in a man's ordinary suit of clothes this republican tax of 31 cents amounts to 75 cents, two and a half times more by the time it reaches the final purchaser.

There is no certainty and little probability that the producer of the wool will receive 11 cents a pound more for his product because of the republican tariff. There is no question, however, that by reason of this tariff he will have to pay, in his character of consumer, at least 75 cents a pound for all the wool he buys in manufactured form.

FOR A CLEANER CITY

The move on the part of the Planning Board for a cleaner city is in the interest of the public health and common decency. Often in the past, such movements have been started only to be heard of for a few weeks, and then by that time everybody had slipped back into the old habit of casting waste paper and other forms of rubbish into the streets. It is noticeable that on certain streets, particularly where there are many children, this seems to be the custom with young and old. It is fair to assume that in such cases, most of the offenders do not realize that they are violating a city ordinance. They must be educated. Furthermore, much may be accomplished in the line of improvement by holding families responsible for the condition of the streets in front of their premises. What is everybody's business is nobody's business; but when a man is held responsible for the condition of the sidewalk and gutter in front of his home, he will at least see that neither his family nor his neighbors will use it as a dumping place for waste paper, tin cans, barrel staves and rubbish in general.

OUR STREET ACCIDENTS

That 386 automobile accidents occurred in this city since the first of the year is a matter of very grave concern. It means that we have had over two such accidents a day and that in each case with consequences more or less serious. In those accidents nine persons were killed and a great many injured. That is a lamentable record for six months in a quiet city such as Lowell. It could have resulted only from gross carelessness either on the part of the operators or of those who were injured or killed. The increase in such casualties shown by these figures indicates greater insecurity on our streets and highways than ever before. The question is, how reckless driving and equally so jay-walking can be stopped or minimized? The responsibility rests with the police and the citizens; and while it is not desirable to shoot those who violate the motor laws, it is felt that if the offenders are brought to court, Judge Knight will administer a salutary lesson that will probably have the desired effect.

FEMALE MURDERERS

It appears that the hesitation of juries to convict female murderers is rapidly disappearing. Last week a New York jury found a woman guilty of murdering her paramour and she has been sentenced to death. In Chicago recently a woman who had killed her husband was convicted of murder and sentenced to be executed. Now that women claim equal rights and privileges with men, there is less sentiment against holding them responsible for their criminal acts under the same laws as are applied to men. Even women as jurors no longer show their usual sentimentality against convicting members of their own sex or other youthful persons. Only recently a woman as foreman of a New Jersey jury found a 16 year old boy guilty of murder and announced the verdict in a voice as firm as could be that of any man in like conditions.

X-RAY

An X-ray current of 350,000 volts, the most powerful ever used, was "shot" into the cancer of a woman patient at Bellevue hospital, New York city. Three weeks later the cancer was reduced in size three-quarters of an inch.

As a result, Dr. Lewis Friedman, a Bellevue radiologist, is able to make the scientific prediction, perhaps the most important medical news so far in 1923: "All tissue contains electrical energy. The X-ray burns out that energy. We believe that it will take the place of radium in cancer cases. There is no doubt that some form of X-ray will eventually be discovered that will produce an absolute cure." If that prediction be realized, it will prevent the ravages of cancer, which is now responsible for about one death in every hundred.

"AL" SMITH'S CANDIDACY

There is a strong movement among the "wets" to put forward Governor Smith of New York as candidate for the presidency. They seem to believe that Smith, representing, as he does, the opposition to prohibition or rather the demand for a more liberal interpretation of the 18th amendment, would sweep the country. We are not inclined to say such belief, nor do we feel that the prohibition issue can be injected into the next campaign to the extent of controlling nominations. The question is settled, so far as prohibition is concerned, and the only constructive matters in controversy have to do with the proper interpretation and enforcement of this new feature of the Constitution.

LOW PRICE OF WHEAT

American farmers are almost in a panic over the low price of wheat. The present market price of that important staple does not pay the expense of production. The export business has been practically cut off for two seasons, first the European nations have not the money to purchase wheat as before the war, and second the tariff imposed upon American wheat shuts out the Canadian supply which in turn has increased the export of Canadian wheat. Great Britain is now getting her wheat from Canada, whereas before the present tariff took effect she purchased largely from the United States.

FARMER

The farmer has succeeded as a producer, but he has failed as a marketer, says Walton Paton of American Farm Bureau Federation. He thinks co-operative marketing will help a lot.

More than any other industry, farming is regulated by the law of supply and demand. The good roads movement was started to get a better market for the farmer and better prices for the consumer. But when the consumer moves out to deal directly with the source of production, he usually has to pay city prices, or close to them. Back of this is a principle that retards elimination of the middleman.

A Thought

He that covereth a transgression seeketh love; but he that repeateth a matter separateth very friends.—Prov. 17:9.

Let the greater part of the news that reaches be the least part of what you believe.—Quarles.

Clean Deaths—No Pain

Many examples of babu English are published from time to time, but an advertisement that appeared in the columns of an Indian paper must be among the best. Here it is, word for word: "Mahomedism, hair-cutting and clean shaver. Gentlemen's throats cut with very sharp razors, with great care and skill. No irritating feeling afterward. A trial solicited."

Real Article Does That

"I hear that a cheap substitute for ice has been invented," said the first ice magnate excitedly. "You don't say so," exclaimed the other ice merchant. "Yes, I don't know much about it," replied the first, "but I will leave a wet spot on the back doorstep exactly like that left by a chunk of ice, melting and at half the cost."

Enjoying Poor Health

Mrs. Brown's poor husband had unfortunately been laid up for six months. But the glad news that he was on the high road to recovery had come at last. "I'm so glad to hear that your husband is getting better," remarked a kindly lady to Mrs. Brown, one day. "Well, so am I. He was getting along so nicely last week, but now the doctor says he's got the convalescence. Isn't it hard times?"

Optimism to N'th Degree

Some people are always optimists. "Remember," said one of them, "always look on the bright side of things." "Why?" "Well, the other day I went with him to buy a pair of shoes. He didn't try them on and when he got home he found that a nail was sticking right up through the heel of one." "Did he take them back?" "No. He said he supposed the nail was put there intentionally to keep the foot from sliding forward in the shoe."

Just Father, That's All

A fashionably dressed woman, accompanied by four well-dressed children registered at a Springfield hotel and immediately went to their room. A half-hour later a seedy-looking man snatched up to the desk and informed the clerk that he was a member of the party. Not knowing just where to place him, the clerk hesitated for some time and finally asked him if he was the chauffeur. The man sighed wearily. "Yes," he said. "I am the chauffeur, the husband, the father, and the chaplain, and I have paid all the bills for 20 years"; then, petulantly, "and I want to go up to the room."

The Vacation of Home

Oh, it's spring once more in France, and it's spring in gay Algiers. And it's spring along the happy Arabian Way. There are cherries in Japan, and the thrush's joy and tears. Pipe for England, "There is nowhere such a day!"

How the call rings clear, commanding: "Hurry over, sail afar. To the date-tree and the hazyan's dim domain. To the Yande and the Yalu, where the bell-topped temples are; And remember there are castles left in Spain!"

But I hear a whisper steady, blowing down my own home-stream. Full of all the glad romance I used to know: "Leave the lands beyond to others; Our war woodfolk are your brothers; And the earth is bursting treasure!" So I go.

When the wander-bird is on me, there are never birds that hold. When the summons comes, it never comes in vain. The foreign lands are either far too new or far too old. Give me April in my native woods again!

By RUTH WRIGHT KATTEMAN.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

There have been, within the past few days, several narrow escapes from automobile and airplane collisions at the corner of Merrimack and Prescott streets. Automobiles, especially out-of-town drivers, come down Merrimack street at a fairly good speed and, unaware of the fact that the electric car is going to swing into Prescott street, fail to slacken speed as they near the corner. On Monday morning of this week one automobile was unable to stop in time because of the slippery condition of the black-paved street and was compelled to run into the curbings to stop. The progress of his machine when he reached the corner was such that he was driven directly into the power of the automobile, but it seems the machine should be driven through the square at a rate of speed that makes it impossible to stop in a very short distance.

A well known local engineer believes that great things will be accomplished in the near future by electricity. He says: "Specially but surely we move toward the Electric Age. Production of electricity this year will be increased at least a tenth. Electricity is being used in homes, two and a half million stores and industrial plants, and supplies the power used by more than five million manufacturing and commercial establishments. The solution of our coal problem is to burn the coal at the mines, generating power sent over high tension wires with light or, as electricity, heat and light with electricity. That dream may be realized in the near future."

A group of "lawyers" were in the midst of an apparently interesting conversation. One of the members of the profession came along, stopped for a few minutes and then left with a disgusted look. "What's the trouble?" inquired, and he replied, "Oh that gang with the hoof and mouth disease again." Pressed for an explanation, he remarked: "I was in the hall and saw a dog and a cat and a horse who walk around the golf course all day and then talk about it all night."

Tom Sims Says

Only place a man can write a telegram in two seconds is on the movie screen.

Do you remember what you were worrying about this time last year? Very few of us do.

SAT ON HOT FUEL PIPE

12 Negro Crap Shooters

Ducked When 13th Member of Party Pulled Gun

12 Pairs of Trousers Ruined

and Owners Will Now Take Meals Standing Up

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio, July 18.—Twelve of 12 negro laborers who participated in a crap game at the La Belle Iron works labor camp here, are in the mill hospital today, suffering from burns.

The dozen were ranged along one side of a table while the 13th wielder of the spread ivory galloped, faced them from the opposite side of "Lady Luck's" table.

One of the 12 with a boarding house reach, grabbed for the pot of money in the center of the table. "Shooter" No. 13 reached for a pistol.

As it flashed, 12 men "ducked." All sat on a red hot fuel pipe.

Twelve pairs of trousers were ruined and the owners will take their meals standing for some days.

R. R. ENGINEER KILLED

Engine and Six Cars Suddenly

CARTERSVILLE, N. J., July 18.—Engineer McCarthy of a Central New Jersey passenger train, was killed when the engine and six cars suddenly left the track on a curve near here at 10 o'clock today. Some passengers were reported injured.

SAYS HUGE RUM CAMPS

SUPPLY NEW ENGLAND

NEWPORT, R. I., July 18.—Declaring that great camps are being maintained at St. Pierre and other points on Micronesia, from which rum is being smuggled into New England, E. F. Nickerson of Nova Scotia, most worthy patriarch of the National Sons of Temperance, now sitting here, created a sensation yesterday. He was present at the annual report.

He added that the organization should do its best to see that these camps were exterminated so that the National Sons of Temperance could better hold up the hand of the federal government of the United States in its work of prohibition.

The day of the convention was given up to the consideration of extension work. It was said that the order in Great Britain registered 429,720 members. Rev. J. B. Ackley of Portsmouth, N. H., proposed that the Sons of Temperance and the Temple of Honor unite. It was announced that the Cadets of Temperance had amalgamated with the Sons.

The matter of the alleged rum camps which feed New England will be further discussed today.

Past worthy patriarchs Rev. George Lawson of Somerville, Mass., and Rev. Alfred Noon of Everett, Mass., joined the delegates yesterday.

JAPANESE LEADER

ON MISSION TO PARIS

PARIS, July 18. (By the Associated Press).—Considerable importance, particularly and commercially, is attached to the visit here of Ritsa Fujitama, president of the National Federation of Chambers of Commerce of Japan and of the Tokyo chamber of commerce.

It is understood that he has begun conversations with M. Lucien Dor, minister of commerce in an attempt to find out whether a commercial treaty cannot be negotiated with France.

$275,000 FIRE AT CINCINNATI PARK

CINCINNATI, July 18. (By the Associated Press).—A large amusement resort, was partly destroyed by fire which early today swept the northeast side of the park and attacked the rear end of the shops of the Cincinnati Park Co., adjoining the zoo. Damage was estimated at $275,000.

Half a dozen of the park's large concessions, including a two-story dance hall, and amusement pavilion, were destroyed.

CHIEF FACES 13 CHARGES

Accusations, Many of a Serious Nature, Against Beverly

Police Head And Officers

Six of the Charges Grew Out of Wounding of Lynn

Couple on June 10

BEVERLY, July 18.—Thirteen written charges against Chief of Police John E. Hayes and other members of the police department have been received by the board of aldermen and will come up for consideration at a hearing to be held August 12. The accusations which were opened at the meeting of the aldermen last night are mostly of a serious nature.

Six of the charges grew out of the wounding of John C. Winton and Evelyn Winton of Lynn, on the morning of June 10, when a party of police in charge of Chief Hayes attempted to stop an automobile in which they were riding. Bullets fired at that time struck the pair.

The other communications included charges of illegal entering, unlawful disposal of seized liquor, assault, location, and conduct unbecoming officers.

BILLERICA CHAUTAUQUA

Excellent Series of Entertainments Brought to Close—

Old Home Week Plans

So successful has been the Chautauqua series in its efforts to present to the people of Billerica, educational lectures, and entertaining pageants, that it is hoped by all residents of the town that Billerica will be included on the Chautauqua circuit next year.

Two performances were given yesterday, one in the afternoon, by the Junior Chautauqua, and one in the evening, the latter being a fitting climax to a most successful series.

The committee on the "Old Home Week" celebration, held its meeting last evening, and it was announced that the event will open Saturday, Sept. 1, and will continue for several days. William H. Butterfield, chairman, was instructed to appoint a secretary. Albert H. Richardson was appointed treasurer.

One hundred and fifty dollars has already been appropriated to the town to start the movement and it was planned to have the Boy Scouts make a canvass of the town to secure pledges. Some of the Billerica organizations have promised financial aid that the affair may be a success.

Although it was not announced definitely, the committee has in view the giving of pageants, band concerts, and other entertainments. "But unless the citizens of the town co-operate with the committee, there can be no success," Chairman Butterfield stated.

TO PUT I. W. W. TO WORK ON ROADS

PORT ARTHUR, Tex., July 18.—Immigrant influx of I.W.W. crusaders, estimated to total more than 20,000, finds this city of 22,000 outwardly unconcerned. The authorities have announced that all persons without visible means of support will be arrested. If convicted as vagrants, they will be assigned to work on road and bridge-building gangs. There is an abundance of work of this kind as a result of improvements made possible through a $2,000,000 road bond issue.

RAILWAY GUILTY OF BLOCKING TRAFFIC

BOSTON, July 18.—The New York Central & Hudson River Railroad company was found guilty yesterday in district court, East Cambridge, of obstructing traffic for more than five minutes, and the case, preferred by Fred Carter, a Cambridge storekeeper, placed on file.

According to the testimony, Carter and Clarence W. Rowley, an attorney, were held up at a grade crossing in East Cambridge for 11 minutes by a freight train. A city ordinance prohibits obstructing traffic for more than five minutes.

GIRL SAVED BY "RAT" IN HAIR

KENNEBUNK, Me., July 18.—Two girls on a Massachusetts Heenan motorcycle struck a rough place in the road near Gordon's garage and the driver was thrown 16 feet into the air and 15 feet ahead, striking on her back. She was unconscious when taken into the garage, but recovered, and in less than half an hour was on her way.

Onlookers said that but for the so-called "rat" in her back hair she would have been killed when her head struck the concrete road.

U. S. CROPS IN GOOD CONDITION

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Generally favorable conditions for crops prevailed during the first half of July and livestock is in good condition, semi-monthly reports to the department of agriculture indicated today.

Cotton shortage continues general. Cotton continued to improve on the whole and growth made good progress, although the crop is still somewhat backward. Fields are clean and well cultivated.

INVESTIGATION OF FIGHT PICTURES

LOS ANGELES, July 18.—Expectations that the federal grand jury soon would begin an investigation of the bringing here from Shelby, Mont., of motion pictures of the Dempsey-Gibbons fight July 4, were expressed by government officials here today. It was forecast that indictments charging conspiracy to violate the federal law against interstate commerce in such pictures would be sought.

Berton Braley's Daily Poem

NECESSARY?

("The 12-hour day is a necessity in the steel business."—Judge Gary.)

Twelve hours a day.
Pretty easy, hey?
Get up in the morning when the dawn's still gray:
Work in smoke and heat,
Grab a bite to eat,
Stumble home at nightfall on yer achin' feet!
Who cares how YOU feel?
Gotta have the steel!
Saek you in a minute if you make a squeal;
"Slavery," you say?
G'wan, you get your pay,
Gary says we gotta have a twelve-hour day!

Twelve hours a day!
Work—and hit the hay.

DUAL TRAGEDY A MYSTERY

Bodies of Prominent Kansas City Undertaker and His Bookkeeper Found

Porter Discovered Man Bending Over Woman's Body in Elevator Pit

Rushed For Doctors—Man
With Knife in Breast

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 19.—The bodies of W. M. McClure, 54, prominent Kansas City undertaker, and Mrs. Eula Thompson, 35, his bookkeeper, lay today in the silent dusk of the undertaking rooms in which they met death last night. Inquiry continued by the police failed to reconstruct acceptably the meagre details of the circumstances which led to the dual tragedy.

McClure was married and had two daughters. Mrs. Thompson, a widow, long had been employed by his firm. Fred Welch, negro porter, found McClure bending over Mrs. Thompson's body at the bottom of an elevator shaft last night and was ordered by McClure to call a physician. When two physicians arrived to examine the body, McClure fled the room. A search for him a short time afterward revealed his body lying on an undertaker's slab in the morgue, a knife used in post mortem examination, protruding from his breast. McClure's eyeglasses had not been removed. There was nothing to indicate violence in his death.

A door opens into the elevator shaft, and blood upon the floor of the elevator at the bottom of the shaft, indicated that Mrs. Thompson had fallen from a room in which coffins were stored, two stories to the floor of the elevator.

E. M. McClure, in the porter's expressed belief that Mrs. Thompson fell into the unguarded pit when she went to the storeroom.

Dr. Moss asserted that an extremely nervous temperament attributed to the undertaker might have caused McClure to take his own life in the matter that discovery with Mrs. Thompson's body would bring a court ordeal which he dreaded to face.

Precisely what happened just prior to discovery of the tragedy has not been revealed. The coroner announced that no inquest would be held.

have more confidence than they would in deeper water and for this reason the instruction is easier and the progress made greater than would otherwise be the case.

When Supt. Kernan decided to conduct swimming classes at the South common pool, he consulted the officials of the park department and Mayor Donovan and, needless to say, all were heartily in favor of the plan, outlined by the superintendent. It was then necessary to procure an instructor and, after considerable inquiry, Supt. Kernan connected with Leo Wholey, a Pawtucketville boy, who is an excellent swimmer and was willing to work during his summer vacation from college at the rate of the regular park supervisor. He was therefore engaged as instructor and is on the job five days a week at the South common pool. His success has already proved that he is the right man for the place.

The children attending all the playgrounds were notified that if they desired to learn to swim there was a competent instructor at the South common pool who would teach them. The response was instantaneous, and inside of a few days there were more than 500 children taking lessons daily in the pool. The children were divided into two classes, beginners with absolutely no knowledge of swimming, and children who were able to swim a few strokes but without any confidence. The beginners attend class in the morning and the advanced class meets in the afternoon.

Mr. Wholey's work has been exceptionally successful as several of the boys said today that they had learned to swim after one week's training and were now able to swim the entire length of the pond.

Supt. Kernan, in speaking of the pool, stated today that any child, boy or girl, from any section of the city, may take lessons there and he has provided rooms in the Elliot school in which clothing may be changed and there are also several shower baths for use.

In regard to the purity of the water, there is no purer pool in the city for the bottom is hard cement and is thoroughly cleaned before the water is turned on. During the hot weather fresh water is being pumped into the pool steadily and the overflow passes off equally fast.

Since these swimming classes were started Supt. Kernan has advised the men on duty at the bath-house on the Merrimack river, to send all the small children to the common pool, so as to avoid the danger at the bathhouse.

Mayor John J. Donovan has been a frequent visitor at the pool since the lessons were started and believes it is the most important part of the whole playground system.

While the ordinary attendance at the pool is only about 500, on hot days well over 1000 children gather there. Every child has acquired a healthy tan and they are certainly looking better in health by the bathing and other activities.

In addition to the pool at the South common, Supt. Kernan says there should be one at Shedd park and while this cannot be accomplished this year, he hopes that before many years go by the city will see fit to install a pool there even larger in size than that on the South common.

For the benefit of those children that use the North common playground, Supt. Kernan intends to install 10 or 12 out-door showers. These showers cost but little and will prove a great boon to the children on hot days as they can use them at will and thus get the benefit of a cooling bath without going to the South common or the river. One such shower is already installed at the bath-house and has amply demonstrated its great value and is in use practically all the time while the bath-house is open.

NEW HAVEN, July 19.—Patrick Murphy, 102, of Monument, Colo., the oldest Knight of Columbus in the world, has been found after being missing for 48 hours from Colorado Springs; whence he had gone on a vacation. It was stated last night at national headquarters of the Knights of Columbus here.

Murphy attempted to set a record by being the oldest person to climb Pike's Peak. He set out alone and after 48 hours a searching party found him half way up Pike's Peak. He descended only after being assured he would be accompanied on a new attempt in September.

DAUGHERTY'S SON IS WORKING IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, July 19. Major Draper M. Daugherty, son of Harry M. Daugherty, United States attorney general who fled from a Connecticut sanitarium on June 17, has been in Chicago, employed as a salesman for a coal company for the past month, according to the Chicago Herald-Examiner today.

"I came here to get a fresh start to work and I am working," the newspaper quoted him as saying.

Major Daugherty said the publicity in which he figured last spring in connection with the Dorothy King murder case in New York "knocked him to pieces," according to the Herald-Examiner.

Meetings to End Strike
BOSTON, July 19.—Special meetings of local unions of telephone operators in centers throughout the area served by the New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. were summoned for today to discuss calling of the strike declared by several thousand operators more than a month ago, to enforce demands for wage increases and a seven-hour day.

Delegates attending a special meeting of the regional council of the operators' unions last night announced early today at the close of a nine-hour session that the local unions would be asked to act immediately. The meeting of the council followed a conference between Miss Julia O'Connor, head of the strike forces and General Manager Geo. J. Dresser of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Co., held at the former's request. At this conference, Mr. Dresser outlined the terms on which the company would re-employ as many of the strikers as possible at unchanged wages. These terms were discussed at the long session of the regional council and on them the local unions will act today.

In its statement of terms, later published as an advertisement in newspapers this morning, the company insisted on its former provision that all operators engaged since the strike began, might retain their positions if they wished. In the matter of seniority, it was stipulated, operators returning to work subsequent to July 2, would be junior to those who remained at work, or returned to their positions prior to July 2. Striking operators who returned to work after July 2, would be restored to their rights under the company's benefit plan after a probationary period of one year.

members of the wage committee of the regional council who accompanied her left yesterday's conference with General Manager Dresser, the council was summoned and the long meeting followed. At the close, Miss O'Connor issued this formal statement:

"The New England Council of Telephone Operators' Unions at a special meeting tonight, received the report of its committee which conferred with General Manager Dresser today. The action of the council on this report will be submitted to the membership at special meetings of all the locals to be held this morning for ratification."

Pickets Withdrawn
LAWRENCE, July 19.—All pickets were withdrawn from the local telephone exchange this forenoon, and a special meeting of the local union was called to vote on the question of calling off the strike.

It was reported that another union member quit the strike today and returned to work.

Pickets were in front of the exchange building all night and early today, but there was no shouting and the strikers watched several automobile loads of girls arrive at the exchange in silence. There were more police on duty today than was the case yesterday.

Lieutenant Maughan will follow the itinerary mapped out for his first flight which ended in failure near St. Joseph, Mo., after the gasoline feed pipe became clogged.

Four stops will be made en route, at McCook Field, Dayton, Ohio; Municipal field, St. Joseph, Mo.; air mail field, Cheyenne, Wyo., and Salsboro, Utah.

Complete Schedule
Maughan's schedule, prepared prior to his first attempted trans-continental flight, on a basis of 160 miles an hour speed is the one he is using today. Counting only time in the air, not including 20-minute stops at the way stations, the schedule follows:
McCook field—Dayton, 330 miles, 3 hours, 30 minutes.
Dayton—St. Joseph, 540 miles, 3 hrs., 25 minutes.
St. Joseph—Cheyenne, 530 miles, 3 hours, 30 minutes.

INVESTIGATE NEED OF NEW SUB-STATION

The postal situation in the Highlands district was thoroughly investigated recently by an inspector of the postoffice department, Boston, who, in company with Postmaster Dellsie, made a tour of the district to ascertain for the postmaster-general if a sub-postoffice is necessary there.

The request for a postal station in that district was made by Congressman Rogers after he had received many requests from business firms and persons living there. Postmaster Dellsie is thoroughly in accord with the plan and will do all in his power to have such a station installed.

Work on the new station in Bridge street for the Centralville district is progressing rapidly and as soon as the necessary alterations are completed, the equipment manufacturers will be ready to install the equipment. The postmaster believes this work will be finished inside of five weeks.

MASTER PRINTERS JOIN MANY FIREMEN FOR MUTUAL BENEFIT

GOTHENBURG, Sweden, July 19.—(By Associated Press).—The establishment of an international bureau of master printers in Sweden is one of the results of the world congress of master printers which has just ended in Gothenburg. This meeting of expert printers was attended by one hundred and fifty delegates from eighteen countries, including the United States, England, France, Germany, Italy, Spain, Sweden, Denmark and Norway.

It was sent forth that central bureau was needed in order to collect and distribute information regarding industrial disputes and settlement, means of combating unemployment, new methods of cost accounting, development of standardization of paper presses, etc., and the establishment of unit prices, and similar topics of general interest to the trade. The meeting passed a resolution that the Swedish Association of Master Printers be invited to open such a central bureau, and the invitation was accepted.

A bulletin will be issued in English, French and German, and the financial support of the central bureau will come from the various national bodies of printers who avail themselves of its service.

TYPHOID'S LOW DEATH RATE

NEW YORK, July 19.—Control of typhoid fever has made such progress that in 1922 the death rate for this disease was the lowest ever recorded, according to figures compiled by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. Based on statistics from one-seventh of the total population of the United States and Canada, the death rate in the year mentioned was 2.6 per 100,000 of population. In 1911 the rate was 22.8 per 100,000.

These figures are practically cheering to the American Child Health Association, which is engaged in fighting typhoid as well as other diseases which affect children and mothers.

HURT AT FIRE

Score Injured at Four Alarm
South Boston Blaze—
Damage $300,000

Engine Responding to Alarm
Crashes Into Wall—Thousands Watch Fire

BOSTON, July 19.—Several firemen were overcome by smoke, a score of others, receiving minor injuries, miraculously escaped death and thousands of dollars damage was caused in a spectacular four-alarm fire which raged furiously for several hours last evening in the six-story brick building, 374-384 Congress street, South Boston.

The first three floors of the building are occupied by the Fairbanks company, scales and the upper three floors are said to be occupied by Thompson & Kelly. The fire was confined to the upper two floors on which there were piles of wool and textile and supplies stored.

Last night, Chief John O. Taber estimated the damage by the fire as at least $300,000.

He added that the fire undoubtedly started from a fumigation process, stating that when the firemen first arrived on the scene, they were almost overcome with dense sulphur fumes. He said that the fire department had been notified several days ago that the building would be fumigated.

It was one of the hardest battles the Boston firemen have had recently. The heavy smoke, combined with the fumes of sulphur in the top floor, made the work hazardous, and only the bravery and expertness of the firefighters enabled them to confine the fire to one building.

With the flames continually bursting from the sides of the building and through the roof lighting up the sky as far as to be seen for miles around, the fire was spectacular and attracted thousands of people to the scene. Automobiles were lined along the Summer street bridge looking down on the scene of the fire.

The building, which covers practically an entire city block, is located in the center of the so-called high value district, the greatest fire hazard in the city, it is one of the few places where the chief of the department responds on the first alarm.

Chief John O. Taber was on duty from the beginning, directing the firemen. Excitement was intense in the on-the-spot. Several persons watching the fire were slightly bruised in the crowd pushing back and forth endeavoring to gain points of vantage to watch the blaze.

Harry Irons, 64, of 92 Bowdoin st., West End, a watchman, received minor injuries in an accident that nearly cost the lives of five firemen on the way to the fire.

Engine 18, located at Andrew square South Boston, was hurrying to the blaze on the third alarm. As the apparatus was moving along a street near Richards street, a couple of blocks from the fire, the steering gear broke. The engine truck turned sharply to the right and crashed head-on into the wall at 169 A street. Irons, the watchman at the building was pinned against the wall and was hurried to the City hospital.

The firemen were thrown to the street. They were traveling at a high rate of speed, and the impact caused the truck to practically overturn. Lieut. Charles A. Rogers was in command, sitting beside the driver, William J. Coughlin. Both were badly shaken up. Fireman Michael J. Riley is thought to have broken a rib, and was taken to the City hospital. The other firemen, John Sweeney and John J. Murphy, were also badly shaken up, but they refused medical treatment and assisted in fighting the fire.

The fire was discovered in the fourth floor of the building. The automatic alarm 1225 was sounded at 6:07, and after the firemen had fought unsuccessfully for a time, the first alarm was sounded at 6:25 from box 7112, at the corner of Congress and A streets. Chief Taber responded and at 6:30 the second alarm was sounded. The fourth alarm followed at 6:54, bringing apparatus from nearly every section of the city.

VIENNESE TOO POOR TO PAY DOCTORS' FEES

VIENNA, July 19.—Hundreds of doctors in Vienna are having hard times, these days, keeping themselves and their families alive. The people cannot afford to pay their fees, which are 10, 20, 30, 40, 50, or 100 cents, for a visit. Many physicians' families get meat only once a month, and live chiefly on bread and potatoes.

Ninety per cent of the people in Vienna belong to sick benefit associations, and seek the help of an outside doctor only as a last resource. Furthermore, few foreigners come nowadays to Vienna in quest of medical aid. The home doctors discourage them from taking the journey, representing the local facilities for cure as good as anything to be had in America. It is evident the local practitioner does not want fees to slip through his fingers for the benefit of the profession in another country.

GAS COMPANY BOOTLEGGERS' PREY

SALT LAKE CITY, July 19.—The gas company is the latest victim of the bootlegger's art, according to officers of the sheriff's office here, who assert they have uncovered moonshine-making water tappers. The officers state the manufacturer of illicit liquor has no desire to avoid an "honest" gas bill, but fears an excessive use of gas will lead to inspection and investigation. Consequently the last word in 1922 in bootlegging calls for a device that turns an emergency glow around the meter, giving the operator unlimited gas for his operations, without a fear of gas being registered.

Her rightful pride in their clean linen

SUNDAY MORNING

What a brightness and happiness it means in the American home!

How fitly the day is honored by fresh garments and clean linen.

Then, if ever, wives and mothers take a rightful pride in the spotless appearance of their husbands and sons—their shirts, collars, cuffs, and handkerchiefs fairly sparkling with whiteness.

These things, once so hard to wash, are now easily kept clean. Rinso, the new kind of soap, gently loosens all the dirt. Soaks the dirt right out.

You put your clothes to soak in the Rinso suds—soak an hour, two hours, over night, if you wish, and then just rinse.

Hold them up to the light and see how white and clean. Only the very dirtiest spots where dirt has been ground in need rubbing. And these you rub but lightly. Sprinkle on a little dry Rinso. The stubborn spots yield at once.

If you boil your white cottons, there is nothing so good as Rinso. Just pour enough into your boiler to get the suds you like. It will dissolve instantly in the boiling water.

For the final washing, whether in set tubs or in a washing machine, Rinso makes the work easier, quicker—your clothes whiter. You need no soap powder—no other soap with Rinso.

Rinso is made by the largest soap-makers in the world—the makers of Lux. For the family wash Rinso is as wonderful as Lux is for fine things.

Get Rinso today. Sold at all grocery and department stores. Comes in two sizes—regular size and the big new package. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

With Rinso—the new kind of soap—soaking takes the place of rubbing

With peppery Tydol in the tank you are all set to challenge the other 5,999,999 Fords to equal your get-away—power—miles per gallon!

Tydol vaporizes fast. It burns clean and carbon-less on the lean 15 to 1 mixture.

You simply can't afford to buy sluggish gasolines. They waste 30 cents on the dollar. They build up gummy carbon deposits.

Tydol gives your Ford extra speed and power. Tydol keeps Ford upkeep down! Less carbon. Lower oil consumption. Fewer stops for gas—not because the tank holds more Tydol, but because every gallon of fast vaporizing Tydol holds more miles.

To keep your Ford an economy car, run it on Tydol—the economy gasoline. Fill up at the black and orange pumps—everywhere.

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 4

At first the great shell clinging to the ground so tight that Jack could hardly budge it. Then, after he had lifted it up a few inches, the water surged underneath it and it rose easily. And, much to Jack's surprise, a fat, funny fellow jumped out from beneath the shell.

"Hurrah!" shouted the little watermite, "I'm free again after being locked away for ages and ages." And then he explained to Jack that the great shell had come slipping through the water a thousand years ago and caught him under it. "And you let me out," he continued.

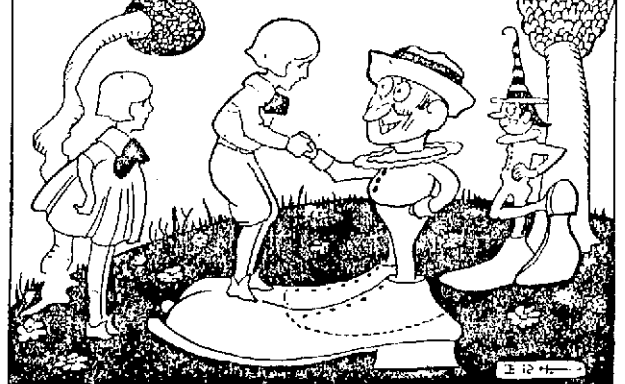

Jack told the watermite that he was glad he had set him free, and then he asked him if he'd show him the way around the bottom of the sea. "Follow me," shouted the watermite, "and in return for your kindness I will show you all the sights that there are down here." (Continued.)

THE TOOTSIES

SO NICK STEPPED UP ON ONE OF THE TOOTSIES' FEET AND SHOOK HANDS

The Twins couldn't help smiling when Mister Sky Bow took them to the place where the Tootsies lived. For the Tootsies were folk with enormous feet, about the rest of them were quite small.

"How do you do?" said one of the Tootsies, holding out his hand to shake hands. "I'm pretty well, thank you," answered Nick, "but I can't shake hands with you because I can't get near enough. Perhaps if you stand sideways I could."

"Oh, that's all right," said the Tootsie. "Step right on." So Nick stepped up on one of the Tootsies' feet and shook hands. So did Nancy.

"It's too bad!" said Nick. "It certainly is," said Nancy. "What about?" demanded the Tootsie. "About your feet."

"What about my feet?" "That they're so large," said the Tootsie. "Ho, ho, ho! That's a fine joke!" answered the Tootsie. "Why, just think of it, when we go skating we can't fall, when we go walking we never get tired, when we can't sprain our ankles for our feet never between two buildings, the police and fire departments of a whole city went to work rescuing him. For 20 hours they worked before they could get the little dog out. And then, only after doing considerable damage to the buildings.

But Florence Charley Baker who finally reached the dog, says it was well worth it. "Turn over, and our shoes are so big we sleep in them at night. Besides, when we go barefoot in the wet grass, think how good it feels."

"But what if you do when they get cold?" asked Nancy. "There's so much of them to ache!" "All the more to stamp around with," answered the Tootsies. "And think what fun we have sliding."

"No matter what you say they will see the happy side," said Mister Sky Bow. "But come now. We must go to another place."

FIFTY-EIGHT YEARS

On One Job and He's Still Happy At It

By NEA Service.

NEW YORK, July 19.—Here's a man with a record of holding the same job 58 years—and absent from work only four days and never once late.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, has been presented to said Court for Probate, by Thomas A. Enright, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a security on his official bond.

You are hereby notified to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-fourth day of July, A.D. 1933, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof by publishing the same once in each week for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing postpaid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

By virtue and in execution of a power of sale contained in a certain mortgage of real estate given by Joseph R. Boyd and Catherine Cole to Ferdinand Rousseau dated November 21, 1922, and recorded in the Registry of Deeds for the Northern District of Middlesex County in Book 65, Page 341, for breach of the conditions of said mortgage, and for the purpose of enforcing the same, will be sold at public auction on the premises at two o'clock in the afternoon on Saturday, the eleventh day of August, 1933, all and singular the premises described in said mortgage, to wit:

The land with the buildings thereon situated in Westbury in said County of Suffolk, so-called, a new street leading easterly and northerly from Trull Road, and bounded as follows: Beginning at the southerly corner of the premises on said Cote Avenue, thence northerly on said Cote Avenue one hundred eighty (180) feet, thence easterly one hundred sixty (160) feet, thence southerly one hundred eighty (180) feet to land of one Kemp, thence westerly along said Kemp land one hundred sixty (160) feet to the point of beginning. Said Cote Avenue to be forever kept open thirty (30) feet in width.

Being the same premises to Joseph R. Boyd and Catherine Cole conveyed by three deeds dated May 11, 1929, and recorded in Middlesex North District Registry of Deeds, Book 62, Page 232; one dated November 21, 1922, and one dated November 21, 1922, the two last also being recorded in said Registry of Deeds.

Said premises will be sold subject to all unpaid taxes, municipal assessments or liens, if any there be. A deposit of one hundred dollars ($100) will be required to be made by the purchaser at the time and place of sale.

Other terms will be announced at the sale.

FERNAND ROUSSEAU, Mortgagee and present holder of said mortgage, July 15, 1933.

Safety Lessons FOR The Auto Driver

Council—Issued by the Massachusetts Safety Council.
No. 12—Autos and Railroads.

In five years 9,001 persons have been killed and 24,208 injured in automobile accidents at railroad grade crossings.
A careful crossing campaign to cut down this annual and unnecessary loss of life is being carried on by the railroads and the safety councils in all parts of the country.

One railroad has reported that 95 out of 100 (95 per cent) automobile accidents at railroad crossings in six months resulted from automobiles trying to cross directly in front of an approaching train. Of the remainder, 41 (27 per cent) resulted from automobiles running into trains—not trains running into automobiles.

One large railroad reports that in one year over 200 crossing gates were run into and broken down by automobiles.
On July 15 and 16, 1922, during the first grade crossing campaign, out of 303,306 automobiles crossing tracks at 260 crossings on 50 railroads, fifty per cent of the drivers neither looked to the right or left while approaching or crossing the tracks.

The railroads are doing their part to prevent accidents at railroad crossings. They have spent and will continue to spend immense sums of money for track elevation, watchmen, crossing gates, and alarms. It would take 600 years to eliminate the 252,022 grade level crossings in the United States at the 1921 rate of loss. Already during the year 1922, the railroads have spent more than $100,000,000 for track elevation in the state of Illinois alone; but with 17,000 crossings still in existence, and because the average cost of eliminating crossings is at least $30,000 each, railroad crossing accidents will continue to occur unless the public does its share toward preventing them.

It is advised never to cross a railroad track at high speed. Many accidents happen because cars become stalled while on the track. It is safer to shift into intermediate or low gear a reasonable distance before crossing a track.

All crossings should be considered as dangerous, whether guarded or not.
Crossing bells are sometimes out of order, watchmen or gate operators may be off duty.

Be especially careful at crossings
where there is more than one track.
Do not cross directly behind a train that has just gone by. Another train may be coming in the opposite direction on the next track.

A train running 40 miles an hour goes 50 feet in one second and cannot be stopped in less than about one quarter of a mile. An automobile running 25 miles an hour can be stopped in 58 feet. Which should stop, look, and listen at railroad crossings,
the train or the automobile?

Accidents involving railroad trains and automobiles rarely ever kill or injure anyone on the train—it is usually the people in the automobile who are killed or injured.

Disappeared After Beating Stepmother Over Head
With a Club

WAUSAU, Wis., July 18.—Mary La-wande, who was found in a swamp near here last night after an eight day search, confessed to Sheriff Arthur Stewart, today, that she attacked her stepmother, Mrs. Anna La-wande, on the night of July 10, beating her over the head with a club. The girl, according to the sheriff, said she had "trouble" with Mrs. Lawande.

KEEP NEGROES IN GEORGIA

Bill to Make it Felony to
For Other States

Present Labor Situation Demands Drastic Action, Says
Author of Bill

ATLANTA, Ga., July 19.—An effort to check the migration of negroes and other farm laborers was given as the reason for the introduction of a bill in the Georgia legislature today, which would make it a felony for any person or concern to solicit labor in Georgia for other states. Punishment would be a prison term of not less than three years, nor more than seven.

"Passage of this bill," one of the authors declared, "will result in checking the exodus of negroes and other farm labor of Georgia to other states. It doesn't allow even licensed labor agents to operate in the state. The present labor situation in Georgia demands drastic legislation and this measure is one which we think best to provide relief."

MARANVILLE IN COURT

and Then Was Taxed $25

BOSTON, July 19.—"Rabbit" Maranville, Pittsburgh shortstop, spent a busy forenoon among the suburbs of Boston today. He appeared in the local court and was fined $100 for operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor, on May 15.

As soon as Maranville had paid his fine in Brookline, he was arrested by Newton police and taken to the Newton court. There a charge of refusing to stop his automobile when ordered to do so by a traffic officer cost him $25. A second charge of speeding was filed.
These charges grew out of incidents of May 15, the night Maranville was arrested in Brookline.

VALUABLE ETCHINGS OF 14TH CENTURY BURNED

BOSTON, July 19.—A number of etch-ings dating back to the 14th century and belonging to the 1st Medici family of Florence, Italy, were destroyed by fire today in the home of Col. Edward H.
Eldridge on Beacon Hill. The etchings, framed in rare Florentine glass, were said to be of great value.

The etchings and a large hand-painted Venetian chest, which was also destroyed, were brought from Italy recently by Mrs. Eldridge, who before her marriage was Countess Du Medici.
They had not been unpacked and were stored in the basement. The fire was said to have been caused by contact between a lighted gas lamp and clothing in the laundry of the house.

The alarm from Box 33 at 4:57 this morning was for a dump fire in the rear of the old Lamson company shop on Berkeley.

Mayor John J. Donovan went to Newburyport this morning to attend an evening held under the auspices of the Mayors' club of Massachusetts.

A trolley wire at the end of the double rail on the Westford street line broke at 10 o'clock last night and a piece fully 100 feet long fell to the ground.
Luckily the wire was on the far end of the line and no breaking became dead, thereby causing no damage. Service between Marlborough street and the end of the line was tied up for over an hour.

Lowell Boy Scouts Leave For Two Weeks of Camp Life at Pelham

TRUCK LOAD OF BOY SCOUT EQUIPMENT, SCOUTS AND EXECUTIVES READY FOR START

One hundred Boy Scouts, representing troops 2, 4, 8, 10, 13, 15, 18, 23, 26, and 30, of Lowell and the Dracut, Chelmsford and Tyngsboro troops, left Lowell this morning in automobiles for their annual two weeks' encampment at Island Pond, New Hampshire.

The boys gathered at the high school building at 6 o'clock dressed in full uniform and carrying blankets, hatch-ets and canteens, and shortly before 9:30 the first machine left carrying a group of boys experienced in trail marking to blaze the road for the other machines to follow. By 10 o'clock the last of the machines had started on the trip.

Scout Executive Edwin J. Mellon is in charge of the encampment, with Albert E. Thurston, deputy scout commissioner, in charge of preparations and of the transportation of the boys to camp. Assisting Mr. Mellon at the camp will be the following scout masters and assistant scout masters: Erwin A. Pearson, troop 1; Fred Grant-lin, troop 2; Harris Gault, troop 13; Hugh J. Thomas, troop 10; and the camp chef, William Salter.

Upon arrival at the camp shortly before noon, the first work undertaken was the preparation of the grounds and the erection of the tents. This work was rapidly done by the older boys who had been in camp before and the entire layout was in readiness when the dinner call was sounded.

The afternoon was given over to the settling of the boys in their various tents and the unpacking and storing of luggage and equipment.

The site chosen for the camp is the best that could be found in this vicinity. The land is fairly high and free from mosquitoes and is yet close to Island Pond. There is plenty of fresh drinking water available and the wood for the fires will be gathered from dead branches of trees and the underbrush which is plentiful in the vicinity of the camp.

Under the able supervision of Executive Mellon and his aides, the boys will undergo a thorough course of training in wood-craft, scout law, nature study, and care of themselves in swimming and boating. Every precaution possible has been taken to safeguard the boys from accident and in case anything should happen, an automobile will be in readiness at all times to transport boys back to the city.

GIVEN FAREWELL DINNER BY HIS ASSOCIATES

Harold Greene, president of the Junior Young Men's Hebrew association, one of the most prosperous social and athletic organizations in the city, was tendered a farewell banquet at the Hotel Marlborough last night on the eve of his departure for Michigan, where he intends to enter business.

Mr. Greene was taken entirely by surprise by his associates gathered to do him honor last night. Practically every member of the organization was present when Max J. Cohen, Esq., as hostmaster, welcomed the guest in appropriate terms and introduced an array of speakers including William R.

Fitzsimon, Henry H. Bloom, Ira Harris, Benjamin Rosenzweig, Hyman Greenbaum and others. Entertainment was provided by Miss Mary Cohen, Bornoff, Knoff, Mathews Cohen and Mannie Diaz.

A collection of appreciation, the first presented was presented a handsome silver loving cup by the host-master, General dancing was enjoyed by the hall soon after the post-prandial exercises.

The success of the affair is due to E. Friedman, J. Cohen, L. Muskin, M.
Cohen, H. Knoff, G. Bloom and M.

REQUEST TURNED DOWN OUTING OF THE ANGEL GUARDIAN SODALITY

Close to 500 men, women and children attended the annual outing of the Angel Guardian sodality of St. Joseph's parish today at Canobie Lake park. The affair was one of the largest of its kind conducted under the auspices of the organization in a long time and proved very enjoyable for all concerned. Particularly pleasing was it to the younger set, who were present in great numbers.

The start for the outing was made from the junction of Merrimack and Angon streets shortly after 8 o'clock, when four special electric cars of large type were filled to capacity.

Upon reaching the grounds a baseball game was played and later a varied list of sporting events was carried out and the many concessions of the park enjoyed.

At noon a basket dinner was enjoyed and in the afternoon the girls were entertained at various sporting events, suitable prizes being awarded the winners. Accompanying the excursions were several elegancies of St. Joseph's parish. The party was scheduled to leave the park for its home-ward trip at 6 o'clock. The arrangements for the affair were in charge of a large committee headed by the chaplain, Rev. Alphonsus Archambauld, O. M. I.

N. Y. POLICEMAN HALTS LYNCHING

Battled His Way to Prison-
er's Rescue as Mob Prepared to Lynch Him

Crowd Attacked Negro Accused of Attempting to
Assault White Girl

NEW YORK, July 19.—While an infuriated mob looked along Seventh avenue near 37th street, for a lamp-post on which to lynch James Guillatte, a negro porter, a policeman last night battled his way to the prisoner's rescue and locked him in a garage for safe-keeping.

The negro was charged with attempting to assault an 11-year-old white girl, whom he had dragged into a dark doorway. A crowd of screaming women and shouting men attacked him.

He was kicked and beaten, and with a clothesline tied in a hankman's knot about his neck, was being led on a search for a stringing-up place when the policeman charged with gun and night stick.

The officer obtained possession of Guillatte and hauled him to the garage, shaking off the men and women who continued assailing both rescuer and rescued. A patrol wagon well armed, was backed into the refuge while patrolmen guarded the doors, and the negro hustled off to jail.

GETTING WEIGHED GREAT SUMMER SPORT

That Lowell folks weigh themselves often is evidenced by the large collection of pennies periodically taken out of the weighing machines at the Comfort station in Bridge and Paige streets. Today no less than 6,000 "coppers" were taken from the machines by N. C. Walker, owner of the weighing apparatus.

The cash contents of the machines are removed once a month, the money is brought in to the office of the superintendent of buildings, where it is counted and distributed, a portion to the owner and the remainder to the city. Last month the two machines brought in $57.18 as against $52.46 in May.
But this month is the largest in the year, exceeding last month's receipts by $2.82. Included in the cash removed from the box were three nickels and four dimes as well as numerous foreign coins.

FILES SUIT FOR DIVORCE

Dr. Nita Baker Says She and Husband "Lived on Different Thought Planes"

SEATTLE, Wash., July 19.—Dr. Nita Baker, widely known in metaphysical circles, has filed suit for divorce here-against Charles Fuller Baker, a zoolo-gist who is dean of the College of Science in Manila.

Dr. Baker told the court that she and Dean Baker "lived on different thought planes."

Dean Baker, according to Dr. Baker, is a brother of Ray Stannard Baker, a writer. She said she was a cousin of former Vice President Marshall.

PADLOCKS ON SALOONS

Crusade Against Sales of Liquor in Hartford, Begun
by State's Attorney

HARTFORD, Conn., July 19.—As a part of a crusade against sales of liquor and drunkenness here, State's Attorney Hugh M. Abner recently secured injunctions against three saloons and was to move to put padlocks on them.
The saloonkeepers promised to dismantle the places, which they have done.

Fifty-nine saloon keepers becoming frightened at the warning on the state's attorney that he intended to use freely the padlock provisions of the law, where convictions were secured against violators, have begun dis
